TO: APOC Commissioners
DATE: September 23, 2019
FROM: Thomas R. Lucas, Campaign Disclosure Coordinator TRL
RE: Alaska Yes, Inc. Violations of AS 15.13 Campaign Disclosure Laws

I. BACKGROUND

On March 5, 2019, Alaska Yes incorporated as a Section 501(c)(4) non-profit corporation.¹ On June 4, 2019, Alaska Yes reserved the name, "Celebrate Alaska."² On August 31, 2019, Alaska Yes held a fundraiser in the name of Celebrate Alaska.³ On September 5, 2019, Alaska Yes registered with APOC as an entity.⁴ On or before September 16, 2019, Alaska Yes began running advertisements supporting the candidacy of Johnathon Quick and opposing the candidacy of Mr. Quick's opponents.⁵

Johnathon Quick is a candidate for the Kenai Peninsula Borough Assembly in the 2019 state-wide municipal elections.⁶ Until September 19, 2019, Paul Huber was his campaign manager.⁷ Mr. Huber was made privy to Alaska Yes's campaign plans concerning Mr. Quick and others through emails sent by Peter Zuyus a Director, Incorporater and President of Alaska Yes.⁸

II. ALLEGED VIOLATIONS

A. Failure to Timely Register as a Group

Alaska Yes self-identifies as a non-profit organization “established to provide independent expenditures for conservative political candidates and to advocate for conservative issues throughout the state of Alaska.”⁹ Alaska Yes calls itself a “Super PAC”; and explains that a Super PAC is a type of independent political action committee which may raise unlimited sums of money from corporations and individuals but is not permitted to contribute to or coordinate directly with parties or candidates.”¹⁰

A “group” is defined as “any combination of two or more individuals acting jointly who organize for the principal purpose of influencing the outcome of one or more elections and who take action the major purpose of which is to influence the outcome of an election.”¹¹ Alaska Yes is a group. Its incorporaters are individuals, it self identifies as being organized to influence elections, and it has taken action whose major purpose is to influence elections.

Before making an expenditure in support of, or in opposition to, a candidate or ballot proposition, each person other than an individual is required to register with APOC.¹² Alaska Yes began making expenditures for the purpose of supporting or opposing candidates and ballot propositions prior to its August 31, 2019, fundraiser to raise funds for its stated purpose of supporting and opposing candidates and ballot propositions.¹³

⁸ Exhibit 8, Emergency Cease and Desist Order, pp 2-3.

⁹ Exhibit 9, About Section of Alaska Yes Webpage.

¹⁰ Ibid.

¹¹ AS 15.13.400(8)(B).

¹² AS 15.13.050.

¹³ Ex. 3.

Alaska Yes did not register until September 5, 2019, and then, only did so as an entity instead of a group, thereby violating AS 15.13.050.

B. Failure to File Campaign Disclosure Reports

As a group, Alaska Yes is required to file campaign disclosure reports.¹⁴ Because it chose to influence the results of a 2019 state-wide municipal election, Alaska Yes was required to file a 30 day campaign disclosure report no later than September 3, 2019.¹⁵ Alaska Yes failed to do so and, thereby, violated AS 15.13.110(a).

C. Alaska Yes's Expenditures in Support of Mr. Quick were not Independent Expenditures.

An Independent Expenditure is defined as “an expenditure that is made without the direct or indirect consultation or cooperation with, or at the suggestion or the request of, or with the prior consent of, a candidate, a candidate’s campaign treasurer or deputy campaign treasurer, or another person acting as a principal or agent of the candidate.”¹⁶

Alaska Yes’s communications supporting Mr. Quick and opposing his opponents contained the words, “not authorized, paid for or approved by any candidate”.¹⁷ The disclaimer is not true and violate AS 15.13.135 because of Mr. Huber’s participation in Alaska Yes’ campaign in support of Mr. Quick.

Likewise, because of Mr. Huber’s participation, Alaska Yes’ expenditures supporting Mr. Quick and opposing his opponents are not independent expenditures, but rather, are non-monetary contributions to the Quick campaign.

D. Alaska Yes' Expenditures Supporting Mr. Quick Violate AS 15.13.074(f).

Upon information and belief, Alaska Yes funded its support of Mr. Quick with contributions from persons prohibited from contributing to a candidate. Such persons

¹⁴ AS 15.13.110

¹⁶ AS 15.13.400(10).

¹⁷ Ex. 8.

include any person that does not satisfy the definition of a group or non-group entity or is not an individual.¹⁸

E. Alaska Yes has not Identified the True Sources of the Funds It has Used for Its Expenditures in Support of Mr. Quick.

Alaska Yes has filed an independent expenditure report showing that its sole contributor is Celebrate Alaska.¹⁹ But, Celebrate Alaska is simply a reserved name owned by Alaska Yes. The true source of the funds would be the contributors who contributed to the Celebrate Alaska fundraiser(s). Failure to identify the true source of funds is a violation of AS 15.13.074(a) and 2 AAC 50.258(a).

¹⁸ AS 15.13.074(f).

FIRST: The name of the corporation (the "Corporation") is: Alaska Yes, Inc.

SECOND: The address of the registered office of the Corporation in the State of Alaska is Gilman & Pevehouse, 130 South Willow Street #3, Kenai, Alaska 99611. The name of the Corporation's registered agent at such address is Blaine D. Gilman.

THIRD: The Corporation is organized as a nonprofit corporation and shall not have any capital stock. The Corporation is organized and shall be operated exclusively to promote social welfare as defined in Section 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and the Regulations thereunder, as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended (collectively referred to as "Code"). The Corporation shall have and may exercise, to the extent that they are not inconsistent with the purposes of the Corporation, any and all powers conferred upon nonprofit corporations organized pursuant to the provisions of the Alaska Nonprofit Corporation Act (the "Act") and other applicable laws, subject to the limitations set forth in the Fifth Paragraph of these Articles.

FOURTH: The Corporation shall not have members.

FIFTH: The powers of the Corporation shall be subject to the following terms, provisions and limitations:

1. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of any director or officer of the Corporation, or any private person, except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services actually rendered to or for the Corporation, and no director or officer of the Corporation, or any private person, shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the Corporation.
2. In the event of the liquidation, dissolution, or winding up of the Corporation in any manner or for any reason whatever, all of the assets of the Corporation after the payment of the obligations and liabilities of the Corporation shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Code Sections 501(c)(4) or 501(c)(3), or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose.

SIXTH: A director of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or its members for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except to the extent such exemption from liability or limitation thereof is not permitted under the Act, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended. Any repeal or modification of the foregoing sentence shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Corporation existing hereunder with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to such repeal or modification.

SEVENTH: In furtherance and not in limitation of the powers conferred by law, subject to any limitations contained in the Bylaws, the Corporation's Board of Directors is authorized to make, repeal, alter, amend or rescind the Bylaws.

WHO IS BRENT JOHNSON ?

THE SENIORS of District 7 are Senior Veterans, Seniors with disabilities and retired Seniors and YES THEY KNOW:

- Brent Johnson thinks Seniors do not pay enough taxes and wants to tax them more. Johnson voted to raise taxes on Seniors and eliminate the KPB Senior property exemption
- The Seniors of the KPB asked for a voice at the borough. Brent Johnson said NO. He wants to tax you, not listen to you.
- Brent Johnson supported term limits, voted for term limits. Now he wants to run for a THIRD term? Where is the Integrity?

Brent Johnson's votes are stuck to his moral compass which we just found floating down the Anchor River

Paid for by AlaskaYes box 896, Anchor Point 99556. Approved by K. Tom's Treasurer and we certify that all ads are not authorized paid for or approved by candidates.

John Quick

KENAI PENINSULA BOROUGH ASSEMBLY DISTRICT 3, NIKISKI.

I am John Quick, candidate for Kenai Peninsula Borough Assembly District 3, Nikiski. My family and I are residents of Nikiski and actively involved in our community. The extended family of my wife, Heidi, were Nikiski homesteaders.

Peter Zuyus Alaska District 31 Republicans September 3 at 4:40 PM

This is the kind of person we need on the KPB Assembly. Please read and share with all you know in the Nikiski Area. John Quick is good for all residents of the KPB.

BEFORE THE ALASKA PUBLIC OFFICES COMMISSION

TODD SMITH,)
 Complainant,)
 v.) APOC Case No. 19-04-CD
 Respondent.)

EMERGENCY CEASE-AND-DESIST ORDER

Todd Smith complains that John Quick, who is running for the Kenai Peninsula Borough Assembly, is authorizing or approving advertisements paid for by Alaska Yes, Inc., in violation of AS 15.13.135. After hearing the matter on an expedited basis, the Commission concludes that Mr. Quick’s campaign is aiding and abetting a probable violation by Alaska Yes of the disclaimer requirement.¹ The Alaska Public Offices Commission (APOC) orders Mr. Quick and his campaign to immediately cease and desist from coordinating with Alaska Yes on advertisements that state they are “not authorized, paid for or approved by any candidate” and remands the complaint to staff for further investigation.²

Mr. Smith filed his complaint against Mr. Quick on September 18, 2019, and requested expedited consideration. Since early voting is underway and the election is set for October 1, the Commission granted Mr. Smith's request on the record, concluding that the "alleged violation, if not immediately restrained, could materially affect the outcome of an election" and "could cause irreparable harm that penalties could not adequately remedy."³ The Commission heard the matter a day later, on September 19. Mr. Smith, Mr. Quick, and Kathy Toms, who is the treasurer for Alaska Yes, testified. Attorney Stacey Stone represented Mr. Quick.

¹ The Commission does not decide whether Alaska Yes violated AS 15.13.135 because no complaint has been filed against the group.

² AS 15.13.380(d).

Alaska Yes's original incorporation documents and an APOC report filed in September list Mr. Quick as a director of the entity. Mr. Quick testified that although he helped incorporate Alaska Yes, he resigned as a director and ended his involvement with the group in March. He filed his candidacy to be a Kenai Peninsula Borough assembly member in August. He testified that he had not coordinated with Alaska Yes on the advertisements and did not approve of them.

The group treasurer, Ms. Toms, testified that she had been the group treasurer for only three weeks and erroneously filed the APOC report indicating that Mr. Quick was a director because no one told her he was no longer involved. She amended the report later in September when she learned that he had resigned in March. In terms of the group's advertisements, she explained that Alaska Yes President Peter Zuyus created the advertisements and circulated them via email for review and approval to a number of people. She stated that she, Alaska Yes directors and vice presidents Nona Safra and Wayne Ogle, and Quick's campaign manager Paul Huber responded to the emails. The advertisements state that they are paid for by Alaska Yes, approved by Ms. Toms, and “not authorized, paid for or approved by any candidate.”

After her testimony, Mr. Quick acknowledged that Mr. Huber was his campaign manager but stated that he had not acted with Mr. Quick’s consent in reviewing the Alaska Yes advertisements before they were distributed or aired.

Alaska Statute 15.13.135(b) requires that a person who makes independent expenditures for communications that support or oppose a candidate provide a disclaimer that the communication is “not authorized, paid for, or approved by the candidate.” The Commission concludes that Ms. Toms’ testimony that Mr. Quick’s campaign manager reviewed Alaska Yes’s ads before distribution establishes that the ads’ disclaimer that they “were not authorized, paid for, or approved by any candidate” is false. The ads are a probable violation by Alaska Yes of the disclaimer requirements in AS 15.13.135. (The Commission does not decide whether Alaska Yes violated AS 15.13.135 because no complaint against that group has been filed.)

Under AS 15.13.380(d), the Commission orders Mr. Quick and his campaign to immediately cease and desist from coordinating with Alaska Yes on advertisements that state they are “not authorized, paid for or approved by any candidate.” The Commission refers the complaint for further investigation by staff on a regular basis. The Commission directs staff to investigate whether Mr. Quick violated contribution-reporting requirements by failing to report the authorized or approved advertisements as campaign contributions and to provide a recommendation on a civil penalty assessment, if any.⁴

About Us

Home (https://alaskayes.org/)

July 29, 2019

AlaskaYes LLC is a 501(C)(4) non-profit organization established to provide independent expenditures for conservative political candidates and to advocate for conservative issues throughout the State of Alaska. AlaskaYes is a Super PAC. A Super PAC is a type of independent political action committee which may raise unlimited sums of money from corporations and individuals but is not permitted to contribute to or coordinate directly with parties or candidates.

Unfortunately, the State of Alaska has a legacy of oversized budgets and out of control spending which has jeopardized the future of the State. Over the past 4 years, the State of Alaska has spent 14 billion dollars out of its saving accounts practically expending all of its reserves. Obviously, this is an unsustainable path. State spending must be cut and additional revenues found through growth. We must reduce our budget in a manner that is commensurate with a State population of 735,000 people. We must have a balanced budget.

Alaskans elected a conservative Governor in Mike Dunleavy. Governor Dunleavy courageously fights with the legislature and special interest groups for an honest budget where expenditures will not exceed existing revenues. He cannot win this battle without our support and help.

AlaskaYes is asking you to join us in this fight to elect conservative candidates for the State Senate and House to get our fiscal affairs in order. We need elected officials who share Governor's Dunleavy's vision of the State living within its means and operating with a balanced budget. Common sense must prevail.

Finally, AlaskaYes endorses the philosophy that local municipal races are important.

We need your assistance in electing conservative city council members, conservative city mayors, conservative assembly members and conservative borough mayors. If we want to live in a conservative State, we must elect conservative candidates at all levels of government.
