

State of Alaska
Local Boundary Commission (LBC)
Public Notice of LBC Public Meeting

The LBC will meet on Wednesday, April 17, 2013, 9:30 a.m. in the Atwood Building, 550 West 7th Avenue, Suite 1760 (17th floor conference room), Anchorage, Alaska. It will continue on Thursday April 18 at 9:00 in the Atwood Building in Suite 1620 (16th floor conference room). The meeting's purpose includes examining what the constitutional framers intended for local governments, what role the framers intended for the LBC, and related issues. Other items include electing a vice chair, discussion of suspending 3 AAC 110.690(b) to allow free telephonic access to the next LBC meeting, and other matters. The meeting will be filmed.

The proposed agenda will be available on the Public Notices link on the LBC website at <http://www.commerce.alaska.gov/dca/lbc/lbc.htm>. Select Notice of April 17 to 18, 2013 LBC Public Meeting, or request that a copy be sent to you by LBC staff at:

550 West Seventh Avenue, Suite 1640
Anchorage, Alaska 99501-3510
Brent Williams: (907) 269-4559
Fax: (907) 269-4563
Email: LBC@alaska.gov

Persons interested in receiving future LBC notices, updates, and materials by email may subscribe to the LBC notice list service by visiting <http://list.state.ak.us/index.htm>, selecting "DCED-Local Boundary Commission," clicking "join or leave," and following the instructions.

To participate in the teleconference, please call 1-800-315-6338 and enter the access code 4587#. Individuals with disabilities who need auxiliary aids, services, or special modifications to participate must contact LBC staff by April 15, 2013.