Groundfish Fishery Emergency Regulation Adoption Order

Publish Date: 12/21/99

Archive Date: 01/21/2000

Location: Statewide

Body of Notice:

FINDING OF EMERGENCY

The Alaska Board of Fisheries finds that an emergency exists and that the attached regulations (5 AAC 28.260) are necessary for the immediate preservation of public peace, health, safety, or general welfare. The facts constituting the emergency include the following:

1. In November 1999, the National Marine Fisheries Service announced permanent closures of areas involving Steller sea lion rookeries and haulouts to groundfish fishing as a means of addressing Endangered Species Act (ESA) mandates. There were two closure areas greatly withimpacted in the Prince William Sound (PWS), Seal rocks and the Needles, could completely displace the PWS pollock fishery. which in turn impacted the state waters pollock fisheries. The most recent reasonable and prudent alternatives (RPA) identified for these two areas within PWS would defer closure until 2001 and identified the goal of spatial distribution of the catch as a means of addressing sea lion concerns.
2. 2. The state plans to manage the 2000 PWS pollock fishery to meet the goal of spatial distribution of the catch. Under the current regulatory structure this would result in a foregone harvest of 20% to 40% of the guideline harvest level (GHL).
3. In order to achieve allow for the original guideline harvest levelfull GHL and address ESA mandates, and not get into time and gear conflicts with the federal pollock fisheries the Board, during its tri-annual meeting in Valdez, found that conducted a finding of an emergency existed and directed the department to issue an emergency regulation that would allow limited pollock fishing in new areas to replace fishing opportunity otherwise likely to be foreclosed by required ESA measures. giving the new areas allowed to fish along with the seasons and permit requirements necessary. The Board found that this situation was an unforeseen, unexpected resource situation where, unless this emergency regulation were adopted, a biologically allowable pollock harvest would be precluded by delayed regulatory action, and such delay would be significantly burdensome to the Prince William Sound commercial pollock fishery because the resource would be unavailable in the future.

The Board expects to make this emergency regulation permanent at its regularly scheduled March 2000 meeting in Anchorage.

ADOPTION ORDER

Under the authority of AS 16.05.251 and AS 16.05.270, the above regulation changes are therefore adopted as emergency regulations to take effect immediately upon filing by the lieutenant governor, as provided in AS 44.62.180(3).

This action is not expected to require an increased appropriation.

Notice Of Proposed Changes In Title 17 Regulations

Publish Date: 12/21/99Archive Date: 01/28/2000
03:30:00 PM*Location: Statewide*Body of Notice:

Notice is given that Department of Transportation and Public Facilities, Division of Statewide Design and Engineering Services, under the authority of AS 19.05.020, and AS 44.42.030 proposes to adopt and amend regulations to make changes in Title 17 of the Alaska Administrative Code, dealing with encroachments, driveways and road approaches, land disposal, relocation assistance services, and appeals, to implement AS 19.05, 19.25, 19.30, 19.40, 34.60, 35.05, 35.10, and 44.42, including:

1. The Department proposes to amend regulations found in 17 AAC 10.010 and adopt new regulations as 17 AAC 10.011 through 17 AAC 10.015 which relate to the issuance of permits to allow encroachments within highway rights of way. The regulations will establish requirements for the issuance of these permits and establish application and permit fees.
2. The Department proposes to amend regulations found in 17 AAC 10.020 and 17 AAC 10.040, and adopt new regulations at 17 AAC 10.060 through 17 AAC 10.095 which will establish requirements for the issuance of residential and various types of commercial driveways allowing ingress to and egress from the state highway system. They also establish application fees and a performance deposit to ensure the driveways are installed in conformance with the terms of a permit issued.

3. The Department proposes to adopt new regulations as 17 AAC 10.100 through 17 AAC 10.106 to establish the requirements for disposal of land not needed for highway purposes. These regulations establish procedures for negotiated sales, competitive sales, and over the counter sales.

4. The Department proposes to adopt new regulations as 17 AAC 81.010 and 17 AAC 81.020 which implement AS 34.60. These regulations will provide for a variety of benefits to persons, business organizations which are displaced, or otherwise impacted, by federally funded land acquisitions. The regulations also provide an administrative appeal process for aggrieved parties.

5. The Department proposes to adopt 17 AAC 85 as new regulations. This new chapter provides an appeals process for denials for encroachment permits, driveway and road approach permits, land disposal, and permits for highway signs for the traveling public. The regulations establish a three-member appeals board, consisting of the Director of Statewide Design and Engineering Services and the Regional Directors from the regions in which the denial did not occur (or each member may appoint a designee), thus removing the Regional Director of the region in which the denial occurred from the process.

Notice is also given that any person interested may present written comments relevant to the proposed action, including the potential costs to private persons of complying with the proposed action, by writing to Tamar di Franco, Engineering Program Manager, Division of Statewide Design and Engineering Services, Department of Transportation and Public Facilities, 3132 Channel Drive, Suite 105, Juneau, Alaska 99801, so that they are received no later than 4:30pm Friday, January 28, 2000.

If you are a person with a disability who may need a special accommodation in order to participate in the process on the proposed regulations, please contact Tamar di Franco at (907) 465-6956 no later than January 15, 2000 to ensure that any necessary accommodations can be provided.

This action is not expected to require an increased appropriation.

Copies of the proposed regulation may be obtained by writing to: Tamar di Franco, Division of Statewide Design and Engineering Services, 3132 Channel Drive, Suite 105, Juneau, Alaska 99801. The regulations are also posted on the internet at <http://www.dot.state.ak.us>.

After the close of the public comment period, the Department of Transportation and Public Facilities will either adopt these or other proposals dealing with the same subject, without further notice, or decide to take no action on them. The language of the final regulations may vary from that of the proposed regulations. You should comment during the time allowed if your interests could be affected.
