Exhibit 1: Gabby's Tuesday PAC Group Registration Report.

Exhibit 2: Gabby's Tuesday PAC Primary Election Seven Day Report.

Exhibit 3: Representative LeDoux's Primary Election Seven Day Report.

Facts

On July 22, 2016, State Representative Gabriel LeDoux, a candidate for reelection to the legislature in House District 15, filed a registration form for a group known as Gabby's Tuesday PAC. She listed herself as both the group's chair and treasurer.¹

Between July 24, 2016 and August 4, 2016, the group received contributions of $500 each from ten registered lobbyists: Ashley Reed, John Harris, James Lottsfelt, Raymond Gillespie, Kristopher Knauss, Fate Putman, Paul Fuhs, Kim Hutchinson, Frank Bickford, and Theodore Popely.² None of those lobbyists are registered to vote in candidate LeDoux's district.³

Between July 23, 2016 and August 6, 2016, Gabby's Tuesday PAC made the following contributions to legislative candidates or their campaign committees: Jim Colver (7/23/16 $1000); Bob Lynn (7/26/16 $1000); Paul Seaton (7/28/16 $1000); Gary Knopp ($1,000); Wes Keller (8/5/16 $$250); Mike Gordon (8/6/16 $500); Colleen Sullivan-Leonard (8/6/16 $250); Dave Talerico (8/6/16 $250); Tammie Wilson (8/6/16 $250); and Steve Thompson (8/6/16 $250).⁴

On August 3, 2016, Stan Filler made a $500 contribution to Representative LeDoux's campaign.⁵ On August 3, 2016, Stan Filler also made a contribution in the amount of $500 to Gabby's Tuesday PAC.⁶

Although she did not request a written advisory opinion under AS 15.13.374, Representative LeDoux has stated that her group's solicitation and acceptance of campaign contributions from lobbyists was cleared with APOC staff.⁷ If that is true, Complainant believes that staff has misinterpreted the law.

Basis for Expedited Review

As explained below, Representative LeDoux's conduct violates several provisions of AS 15.13. For purposes of AS 15.13, Representative LeDoux and her PAC are a single entity. She has illegally accepted contributions from lobbyists, illegally accepted contributions from a single contributor in excess of statutory limits, and has made prohibited contributions to other legislative candidates. Because there is reasonable cause to believe that violations have occurred and will continue to occur, there is a basis for expedited consideration.

² Exhibit 2. Gabby's Tuesday PAC Primary Election Seven Day Report.

³ According to their most recent lobbyist registration forms on file with the Commission, the contributors are voters in the following house districts: Ashley Reed (21), John Harris (24), James Lottsfelt (21), Raymond Gillespie (18), Kristopher Knauss (24), Fate Putman (33), Paul Fuhs (23), Kim Hutchinson (18), Francis Bickford (26), and Theodore Popely (27).

There is also a basis for expedited consideration on the grounds that if not immediately restrained, Respondent's conduct could materially affect the outcome of an election. Representative LeDoux has raised at least $5,000 in prohibited lobbyist contributions and another donor has contributed $1000 which exceeds the statutory contribution limit. She has dispersed these illegal donations to ten other legislative candidates.⁸ While the impact of her contributions on an individual race may be debatable, there is no doubt that she raised a substantial amount of money in prohibited contributions and used them in an attempt to improperly influence legislative elections. There is no indication that Representative LeDoux intends to discontinue this practice.

Representative LeDoux herself has stated that she expects her precedent will encourage others to follow suit.⁹ She predicted that there might be as many as six similar PACs created by next year. There may well be far more than that just by election day. In fact, the Alaska Dispatch News has reported that at least one other candidate, David Eastman, has already followed suit and established a similar PAC.¹⁰ That candidate has also received contributions that appear to violate the limit on contributions from a single contributor.¹¹

Anyone familiar with Alaska politics knows that numerous other legislators and candidates will soon establish their own PACS to access these prohibited sources of campaign contributions under the mistaken impression that it is legal to do so. It will only be a matter of time until candidates are laundering illegal contributions back and forth to each other. Candidate A's group could solicit a contribution from Lobbyist B and then direct it to Candidate C. Candidate C's group then solicits a contribution from Lobbyist B and directs it to Candidate A. The same type of end run around the rules could result in candidates receiving double the $500 contribution limit from a single donor simply by setting up a PAC.

The potential that this illegal conduct will materially affect the general election is substantial unless the precedent established by Representative LeDoux is reversed immediately. The Commission should schedule this complaint for expedited consideration.

Violation 1: Lobbyist Contributions AS 15.13.072 (a)(4), AS 15.13.074 (g).

Representative LeDoux has violated AS 15.13.072 (a)(4) by accepting contributions prohibited by AS 15.13.074(g). AS 15.13.074(g) prohibits campaign contributions to a legislative candidate by anyone required to register as a lobbyist under AS 24.25 unless the lobbyist is eligible to vote in the candidate's district:

⁸ Exhibit 2, supra.

¹⁰ Alaska Dispatch News, Mat-Su Republican who ousted Keller forms PAC, August 24, 2016.

¹¹ David Eastman's APOC reports show that Brad Keithly contributed $250 to Eastman on June 3, 2016 and another $250 to him on July 13, 2016. In the Alaska Dispatch News article cited immediately above, Eastman stated that Keithly had also contributed to his Alaska Conservative Leadership PAC. The PAC has yet to file a disclosure report, but if Mr. Keithly has in fact contributed to it, AS 15.13.070 (b)(1) has been violated.

(g) An individual required to register as a lobbyist under AS 24.45 may not make a contribution to a candidate for the legislature at any time the individual is subject to the registration requirement under AS 24.45 and for one year after the date of the individual's initial registration or its renewal. However, the individual may make a contribution under this section to a candidate for the legislature in a district in which the individual is eligible to vote or will be eligible to vote on the date of the election. An individual who is subject to the restrictions of this subsection shall report to the commission, on a form provided by the commission, each contribution made while required to register as a lobbyist under AS 24.45. Upon request of the commission, the information required under this subsection shall be submitted electronically. This subsection does not apply to a representational lobbyist as defined in regulations of the commission.

Under certain circumstances, the term "candidate" as used in AS 15.13 includes not only the candidate, but also any individual or group over which the candidate exercises significant influence. "Candidate" is defined at AS 15.13.400 (1):

(1) "candidate"

(A) means an individual who files for election to the state legislature, for governor, for lieutenant governor, for municipal office, for retention in judicial office, or for constitutional convention delegate, or who campaigns as a write-in candidate for any of these offices; and

(B) when used in a provision of this chapter that limits or prohibits the donation, solicitation, or acceptance of campaign contributions, or limits or prohibits an expenditure, includes

(i) a candidate's campaign treasurer and a deputy campaign treasurer;

(ii) a member of the candidate's immediate family;

(iii) a person acting as agent for the candidate;

(iv) the candidate's campaign committee; and

(v) a group that makes expenditures or receives contributions with the authorization or consent, express or implied, or under the control, direct or indirect, of the candidate; (Emphasis Added).

Because AS 15.13.074(g) is a statute that "limits or prohibits the donation, solicitation, or acceptance of campaign contributions," subparagraph (B) of AS 15.13.400 (1) applies and expands the definition of “candidate” to include not only the candidate herself, but certain other persons or entities affiliated with the candidate. Under AS 15.13.400 (1)(B)(v), a group falls within the definition of “candidate” under two circumstances: (1) if the group makes expenditures or receives contributions with the authorization or consent of the candidate; or (2) if the group is under the control of the candidate.

That provision is restated in the definition of “group” at AS 15.13.400 (8)(B) which provides that “a group that makes expenditures or receives contributions with the authorization or consent, expressed or implied, or under the control, direct or indirect, of a candidate shall be considered to be controlled by that candidate.”

The circumstances described in AS 15.13.400 (1)(B)(v) clearly exist in this case. Candidate LeDoux was the treasurer of Gabby’s Tuesday PAC when lobbyist contributions were solicited and received by the group. Under AS 15.13.076, a contribution to a group may only be received by the group’s treasurer or deputy treasurer. Since she personally accepted the contributions for the group, the group obviously received the contributions “with the authorization or consent” of the candidate. Gabby’s Tuesday PAC is also under Representative LeDoux’s control. She is both the Chair and Treasurer of the organization. No other person was listed on the registration form as authorized to act on behalf of the group. AS 15.13.400 (1)(B)(v), therefore, brings Gabby’s Tuesday PAC within the definition of the “candidate” for purposes of AS 15.13.074(g).

The combined effect of AS 15.13.074(g) and AS 15.13.400 (1)(B)(v) is to create a blanket prohibition against any group receiving contributions from lobbyists if the group is controlled by a legislative candidate. Since the group she controls has accepted contributions from lobbyists who are not eligible to vote in her district, Representative LeDoux has violated the law.

Violation 2: Acceptance of Excess Contributions. AS 15.13.070 (b)(1)

AS 15.13.070 (b)(1) is also a statute that “limits or prohibits the donation, solicitation, or acceptance of campaign contributions.” Specifically, it prohibits an individual from contributing more than $500 per year to a candidate. As a result, the expanded definition of subparagraph (B) of AS 15.13.400 (1) again applies to Gabby’s Tuesday PAC and brings it within the definition of “candidate” for purposes of AS 15.13.070 (b)(1).

On August 3, 2016, Stan Filler made $500 contributions to both Representative LeDoux’s campaign¹² and to her group Gabby’s Tuesday PAC.¹³ Since the PAC is part of her candidacy under AS 15.13.400 (1)(B)(v), Mr. Filler’s contribution to the PAC is also a contribution to her campaign. Therefore, Mr. Filler has contributed a total of $1000 to her campaign in violation of AS 15.13.070(b)(1).

Violation 3: Illegal Contributions to Other Candidates. AS 15.13.112 (b)(7).

Because Gabby’s Tuesday PAC is, by statutory definition, part of Representative LeDoux’s candidacy, contributions received by it are contributions to her campaign under AS 15.13.400 (1)(B)(v). Between July 23, 2016 and August 6, 2016, Gabby’s Tuesday PAC made ten campaign contributions totaling $5,750 to other legislative candidates.¹⁴ AS 15.13.112 (b)(7) prohibits a candidate from using campaign contributions held by the candidate to make campaign contributions to other candidates. By contributing campaign funds to other candidates, Representative LeDoux has violated the law.
