Re: Notice of Penalty

Dear Ms. Mulder:

According to our records you did not timely file your 2025 Final Public Official Financial Disclosure (POFD) Statement that was due on November 7, 2025. Instead, your statement was filed on November 13, 2025 (6 days late). By law a maximum penalty of $10 accrues each day the report is late.¹ Accordingly, the maximum penalty the Alaska Public Offices Commission could assess you is $60.²

However, because this was your final statement, regulation allows APOC staff to document the violation and reduce the assessed penalty to 50% of the maximum. Accordingly, the assessed penalty owed is $30.³

Additionally, please be advised:

- 1) You may pay the reduced penalty and avoid formal Commission action by remitting payment by check or money order payable to the State of Alaska to the Alaska Public Offices Commission at the address above; visiting our website⁴ to make a payment by credit card; or you may pay in cash at our offices. Payment must be made within thirty days of the date of this letter. If you are unable to pay the entire assessed penalty in a single payment and wish to discuss a payment plan, or have any other questions concerning this matter, please contact the APOC staff.

PLEASE NOTE: credit card payment cannot be made by phone; they must be made online.

- 2) Alternatively, you have the right to appeal staff's conclusion that a violation has occurred, or the reduced penalty amount assessed.⁵ If you wish to appeal you must submit the enclosed appeal affidavit to APOC within thirty days of the date of this letter.

If you appeal, staff will review your affidavit and prepare a recommendation for the Commission. You will receive a copy of that recommendation and notice of when the Commission will meet to consider the matter. You will have the opportunity to participate in the meeting either in person or telephonically.

Failure to respond to this notice by either making arrangement for payment or submitting an appeal within thirty days will result in staff presenting this matter to the Commission for entry of a final order in the amount of the assessed penalty and referral to the Attorney General's Office.⁶

A copy of this letter will be placed in your APOC file and is considered a public document. If you have any questions about this matter, please contact APOC staff.

Thank you,

ALASKA PUBLIC OFFICES COMMISSION

Executive Director
