Re: APOC Complaint 25-22-CD

Ms. Stone,

I am grateful for the opportunity to respond to the complaint filed against me by Randy Ruedrich (25-22-CD).

I will begin by acknowledging that mistakes were made on my 2022 and 2024 APOC reports. The errors were due to insufficient awareness of various laws governing campaign finance disclosure and were not intentional in nature; that is simply an explanation, not an excuse.

I, therefore, take full responsibility for the inaccuracies and am anxious to correct the transactions at issue.

This process has been tedious, requiring the review of data from multiple sources: bank statements, checkbooks, Stripe account, and copies of deposits, invoices and expenditures.

Though challenging, I am committed to the utmost transparency and view this as a learning experience that I will not repeat.

Once I have completed the needed amendments and have reconciled the account, I would like to enter into a Consent Agreement. Kindly advise what further steps need to be taken.

Sincerely,

Louise Stutes
