The reasons stated by a [THE] local governing body must be logical grounds for opposing the application or continued operation of the license and have a reasonable basis in fact.

(b) No final action will be taken by the board upon an application until at least

(1) 60 days after the receipt of the notice required by AS 04.11.520 by a [THE] local governing body unless it advises the director in writing before the end of the 60 days that it is waiving its right to protest the application; and

(c) Repealed 5/11/96.

(d) A local governing body that protests an application shall allow the applicant a reasonable opportunity to defend the application before a meeting of the local governing body.

If based on a general public policy, the policy must have a reasonable basis in fact, may not be contrary to law, and may not be patently inapplicable to the particular application being protested. The board will not substitute its judgment for that of the local governing body on matters of public policy that have reasonable factual support.

(f) If the application is denied because of the protest, and the applicant requests a hearing, the local governing body must, at the board's request, appear or otherwise meaningfully participate in the hearing and must assist in or undertake the defense of its protest.

(h) The board may uphold a protest of an application or continued operation with a single abeyance period not to exceed 180 days if the local governing body indicates the protest is subject to rescission and that it will be withdrawn if the applicant meets conditions set by the local governing body. If the local governing body notifies the board within the period of abeyance that the protest has been removed, the application or continued operation is approved when all other applicable requirements have been met. If the local governing body has not notified the board within the timeframe of the abeyance that it has removed the protest, the application or continued operation is denied. The period of abeyance may not be extended or renewed. (Eff. 11/29/81, Register 80; am 4/28/84, Register 90; am 5/22/92, Register 122; am 5/11/96, Register 138; am ____/____/____, Register ____)
