Re: Alaska Oil and Gas Conservation
Commission regulations re: bonding
(20 AAC 25.025)

The Department of Law has reviewed the attached regulations of the Alaska Oil and Gas Conservation Commission against the statutory standards of the Administrative Procedure Act. Based upon our review, we find no legal problems. This memorandum constitutes the written statement of approval under AS 44.62.060(b) and (c) that authorizes your office to file the attached regulations. The regulations were adopted by the Alaska Oil and Gas Conservation Commission after the close of the public comment period. The regulations update bonding requirements, ensuring that bonding amounts are sufficient for the state to plug and abandon wells if operators go bankrupt and walk away from regulatory duties to properly plug and abandon wells.

The August 15, 2018 public notice, the October 22, 2018 second public notice, and the December 5, 2018 certification of adoption order all state that this action is not expected to require an increased appropriation. Therefore, a fiscal note under AS 44.62.195 is not required.

We note that the regulations have five placeholders for dates that are tied to the effective date of the regulations.

The first placeholder, one of our technical corrections to the introductory language of 20 AAC 25.025(c), is identified by the notation {effective date of regulations} in braces. When the regulations are filed, and the effective date becomes known, please replace the placeholder in braces with the actual effective date of the regulations. For example, if the regulations are filed April 5, 2019, please strike over the placeholder, and substitute the date "May 5, 2019".

The second placeholder, in 20 AAC 25.025(c)(1) is identified by the phrase "<<insert date 90 days after the effective date of these regulation>>" enclosed in double angled brackets. When the regulations are filed, and the effective date becomes known, please replace the placeholder in double angled brackets with the actual date that is exactly 90 days after the effective date of the regulations.

The third placeholder, in 20 AAC 25.025(c)(2) is identified by the phrase "<<insert date one year after date specified in (1) of this subsection>>" enclosed in double angled brackets. When the regulations are filed, and the effective date becomes known, please replace the placeholder in double angled brackets with the actual date that is 90 days plus one year after the effective date of the regulations.

The fourth placeholder, in 20 AAC 25.025(c)(3) is identified by the phrase "<<insert date two years after date specified in (1) of this subsection>>" enclosed in double angled brackets. When the regulations are filed, and the effective date becomes known, please replace the placeholder in double angled brackets with the actual date that is 90 days plus two years after the effective date of the regulations.

The fifth placeholder, in 20 AAC 25.025(c)(4) is identified by the phrase "<<insert date three years after date specified in (1) of this subsection>>" enclosed in double angled brackets. When the regulations are filed, and the effective date becomes known, please replace the placeholder in double angled brackets with the actual date that is 90 days plus three years after the effective date of the regulations.

We have made some technical corrections to conform the regulations in accordance with AS 44.62.125. The corrections are shown on the attached copy of the regulations.
