CHANGES TO THE RFP

1. 3.09 Third-Party Service Providers is deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

Does not apply to this RFP.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Question 1: Sect 3.08 Location of Work

Can the request in writing for the waiver to have the work performed outside the United States (to be done in British Columbia, Canada) be emailed or faxed rather than sent through physical traditional mail?

Answer: Please email your request to dnr.ssd.procurement@alaska.gov.

Question 2: Sect 3.09 Third Party Service Providers

Can you provide more information on these reports ("Type 2 Statement on Standards for Attestation Engagements – SSAE...etc.") and where to obtain any of these report templates?

Answer: Please see above Changes to The RFP regarding Sec. 3.09 Third-party Service Providers.

Question 3: Sect 6.02 Alaska Business Licences and Othr required Licenses

Are these requirements, specifically the Alsakan Business Licence, valid for forgien bidders such as from Cananda or would this be waived if the Location of Work Waiver is granted?

Answer: An Alaska Business License is not required at time of submission of proposal. Offerors will be notified through a Notice of Intent to Award a Contract, who the apparent successful offeror is. If your firm is determined the apparent successful offeror, you will be need to have a valid Alaska Business License prior to me emailing you a contract (even if the work is outside of Alaska).
