

Notice of Proposed Changes in The Regulations of the Alaska Board of Certified Direct-Entry Midwives

Proposed Regulations - FAQ

April 2022

1. What is the purpose of the proposed regulations? What will this regulation do?

12 AAC 14.135. Temporary military courtesy license or certification.

- To implement statutory changes made under Sections 1 and 2, Chapter 29, SLA 2021 (SB 21).
- Establish temporary courtesy license or certification for an active duty military member or spouse of an active duty military member of the armed forces of the United States who meets the requirements of the regulations to practice as a direct-entry midwife or midwife apprentice.
- Allow for an expedited temporary licensing or certification pathway for those in the military and their spouses stationed in Alaska, and will allow military members and their spouses the ability to quickly practice in Alaska until a permanent license or certification can be obtained.
- Assist military spouses to enter the Alaskan Workforce in an expeditious manner will have positive financial impacts for military families and help the overall growth of Alaska's economy.
- Transition to Alaska after reassignment with minimal disruption to employment.
- Military members and spouses will still need to complete the full application and review process for permanent licensure or certification, however this will allow them an option to begin working while they complete the permanent licensure or certification process.

2. What are the costs to comply with the proposed regulations?

$100 application fee and $100 temporary military courtesy license fee.

3. When will the regulations be effective?

After the public comment deadline, comments received are compiled and given to the Board for consideration. The Board may adopt the regulation as written/publicly noticed, may amend and adopt them, choose to take no action, or may withdraw the proposed regulations in part or in its whole. After Board action, the adopted regulations goes to Department of Law (DOL) for final review/approval. DOL either approves or disapproves regulations. Once approved by DOL, it goes to the Lt. Governor for filing. Regulation takes effect on the 30th day after they have been filed by the Lt. Governor.

Do you have a question that is not answered here? Please email RegulationsAndPublicComment@alaska.gov so it can be added.