ITB TITLE:

Fairbanks Area Winter Maintenance Service Delivery

DUE DATE: November 7, 2022 at 2:00PM Alaska Time

This is not a mandatory return Amendment.

The purpose of this Amendment #3 is to:

- Provide answers to questions received
- Modify ITB Section 1.07 SUBMITTING BIDS to allow for electronic submission of bids

Question 1.

what happens in the case the supplier runs out of sand because they only crushed so much for the year and the bid is put out late will it fall back on the contractor?

Answer 1.

It is the Department intent for the Contractor to provide sufficient sand quantities to meet contract requirements. In the event that a contractor can't supply sufficient sand volumes the contractor will be required to provide justification why such volumes cannot be supplied and what additional options have been taken in an effort to provide the needed volumes. The department will reviewed this justification and if determined sufficient will in cooperation with the contractor look to alternate options for sand to include but not limited to other known supplier stockpiles, adjusting sand gradations, and or as a last result provide sand to the contractor. Any such changes will be done through contract change order to include any price adjustments.

Question 2.

For deliverable 1 when snow accumulation reaches 2 inches we are to start plowing that is understood but how long after the 2 inch depth is reached do we haft to show up 12hrs?

Answer 2.

For deliverable #1 Plowing Services. The contractor shall commence snow control plowing when snow depths reach 2". Please see ITB Attachment #5 Performance targets including response times further clarification of service delivery requirements.

Question 3.

For turning in the bid can it be turned in locally in Fairbanks or does it haft to be mailed to Juneau?

Answer 3.

ITB Section 1.07 SUBMITTING BIDS is removed in its entirety and replaced with the following:

If submitting a bid via email, the bid may be emailed to dotstatewideprocurement@alaska.gov and must contain the ITB number in the subject line of the email. The maximum size of a single email (including all text and attachments) that can be received by the state is 20mb (megabytes). If the email containing the bid exceeds this size, the bid must be sent in multiple emails that are each less than 20 megabytes and each email must comply with the requirements described above.

Please note that email transmission is not instantaneous. Similar to sending a hard copy bid, if you are emailing your bid, the state recommends sending it enough ahead of time to ensure the email is delivered by the deadline for receipt of bid.

It is the bidder's responsibility to contact the issuing agency at 907-465-8447 to confirm that the bid has been received. The state is not responsible for unreadable, corrupt, or missing attachments.

An offeror's failure to submit its bid prior to the deadline will cause the bid to be disqualified. Late bids or amendments will not be opened or accepted for evaluation.

Please take into consideration that due to weather, scheduling, and location there is no overnight delivery service to Juneau, Alaska.
