The Alaska Mental Health Board (AMHB) and Advisory Board on Alcoholism and Drug Abuse (ABADA) invites all members of the community and those with lived experience to attend their board meeting in-person, online, or by phone.

The 3-day meeting will include speakers from both Valdez and the State of Alaska.

Public Comment and Community Reception Wednesday, October 4, 6:00-7:30 p.m.

Public comment is an opportunity to share your story related to problems and issues in your community such as children's and adult mental health, crisis services, alcohol, opioids, fentanyl, and other drugs. Please join us in person or you can call in using the number or zoom link above. Our board members are providers, attorneys, and individuals and family members of individuals with lived experience. Light snacks and refreshments will be provided.
