

BEHAVIORAL HEALTH ROADMAP PROJECT

FOR ALASKA YOUTH

WHAT

Virtual Community Listening Session about Behavioral Health Services for Children and Youth

WHEN

October 4, 2023
6:00 - 8:00 p.m.

FOR WHOM

Those with lived experience with behavioral health needs for children/youth, including parents, grandparents, family members, youth, caregivers, and guardians.

ABOUT WHAT?

Individuals will have the opportunity to share their experiences in accessing behavioral health for youth in the region and offer recommendations for improving access or providing additional supports and services in the system of care. Information gathered during this session will help inform the statewide behavioral health roadmap (learn more at <http://bhroadmap.alaska.gov>).

WHO IS LISTENING?

Leadership will be attending on behalf of the Department of Health and Department of Family and Community Services, including:

- Dr. Anne Zink — Chief Medical Officer, Department of Health
- Kim Kovol — Commissioner, Department of Family and Community Services
- Emily Ricci — Deputy Commissioner, Department of Health
- Tracy Dompeling — Director of Division of Behavioral Health, Department of Health
- Lynne Keilman-Cruz — Deputy Director of Division of Senior & Disabilities Services, Department of Health

SIGN UP

https://us06web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZcrcO-ppj8oHNf0hLx-o2cUp21O94_-oRln

If you are unable to attend, keep your eye on our webpage for other opportunities to share and be updated on the progress of this work.

bhroadmap.alaska.gov

