DATE AMENDMENT ISSUED: 11/24/2023

ITB TITLE: Chemical Cleaning – Laundry, Warewashing & Janitorial

ITB OPENING DATE AND TIME: December 7, 2023, 2:00 PM AKST

Please see the following Q & A's and changes to this ITB:

Question 1:

1. Tab "Laundry (LOT #1)": Can we get confirmation on the machine for Palmer, AK Mat Su Pretrial Facility – Commercial Dryer HTO50NN. This appears to be a homestyle dryer only and we are not sure what chemicals the facility intends to use in this machine.

Response: Palmer, AK Mat Su Pretrial Facility – Commercial Dryer HTO50NN does not use any products. This item is deleted. See BID SCHEDULE – ITB 2024-2000-0158 Amendment #1.

Question 2:

1. Tab "Warewashing (LOT #2)": Can the State provide more information on what is considered a load of manual pots and pans?

Response: Manual pots and pans include all glassware, silverware, dishes, walls, floor, etc. This load type has been separated for the purpose of bidders to provide the specific product/s for Lot #2, Item 2.5 – Encapsulated Manual Pots and Pan Detergent. Product/s offered for this item should be suitable for hand cleaning.

Question 3:

1. Tab "Janitorial (LOT#3)": If a product is ready-to-use (RTU) and therefore doesn't have a dilution percentage, what would the State like proposers to input?

Response: For ready-to-use products that do not have a dilution rate, bidders shall enter "0%" on the dilution rate section of Lot #3.

NOTE: If one bidder offered an RTU product, but the rest of the bidders provided a formulated product with a dilution rate, the prices per container entered on the Specifications (L1, L2, L3) tab for that specific item will be used for tabulation.

STATE OF ALASKA ITB NUMBER 2024-2000-0158
AMENDMENT NUMBER 1

Question 4:

1. Tab "Specifications (L1,L2, L3): When a product is 4/1 (4, 1 one gallons), does the State want a 4 to show the entire case or one single gallon in the "Size of container" field?

Response: For this specific scenario mentioned above, enter "1" to show the exact size of the container. If offering a substitute, please, also indicate on the description the case and size of the container.

Question 5:

1. General question: If a proposer doesn't have a particular item in a given Lot, are they considered non-responsive if they select to "no bid" a particular line item(s) in a LOT?

Response: To be considered responsive, bidders must bid on all items. If bidder cannot provide any of the suggested or preferred products, bidder must provide a substitute product or they will be considered non-responsive if a lot is not complete. See Bid Schedule Instructions #4 for additional information.

Changes:

The BID SCHEDULE - ITB 2024-2000-0158 shall be deleted in its entirety and replaced with BID SCHEDULE - ITB 2024-2000-0158 Amendment #1.

In order for your bid to be considered responsive, this amendment must be received by the Procurement Officer prior to the time set for the bid opening.
