Questions and Answers

Question #1.

For Lot 2-g As Needed-King Salmon, the last barge of the season departs September 3rd, 2024.

In the previous contract year, King Salmon requested additional product after the final sailing of the season, the order had to be shipped via chartered aircraft.

If an As Needed order was placed after the final sailing date, the only remaining option would be again to deliver via chartered aircraft.

Is the State willing to be invoiced for the additional air charter cost, in the event that the order is placed after the final sailing date?

Answer #1.

In the event that an As-Needed quantity order is needed after the last barge sailing to King Salmon, and depending on the specific situation, the State may at its discretion negotiate directly with our contractor.
