

2 AAC 90.420 is amended to read:

2 AAC 90.420. Application for driver's license. (a) An application for a driver's license, including a driver's license that is federally compliant, must be made on the form prescribed and provided by the department. The application will include questions concerning the applicant's eligibility for a license, including the existence of a physical or mental disability that may impair the ability of the applicant to operate a motor vehicle safely. If the applicant's answers to these questions indicate the existence of a physical or mental disability that may affect the safe operation of a motor vehicle by the applicant, the department may require an examination of the applicant by a licensed physician, psychiatrist, optometrist, or other competent medical authority before issuance of a driver's license. The applicant shall bear the expense of the examination [MUST BE PAID BY THE APPLICANT]. [The results of an] An examination conducted not more than [within the previous] six months before the application date meets the requirement of this subsection unless the condition began or changed since that examination was conducted. If the applicant seeks a commercial driver's license, a valid medical certificate may be [IS] required in accordance with 49 C.F.R. 383.71, adopted by reference in 2 AAC 90.250.
