Changes to the RFQ:

Change 1: The request for AVGAS tank is preferred, not mandatory.

Change 2: The request for tug is preferred, not mandatory.

Change 3: The request for a bathroom is preferred, not mandatory.

Clarification: Due to State procurement rules, the Department is required to seek quotes for lease spaces and other purchases for goods and services instead of the State providing the rate. The State is willing to pay a reasonable market rate for the area in which the hangar is located.
