CIVICS EDUCATION CURRICULUM AND ASSESSMENTS

Introduction:

The Department of Education and Early Development (DEED), the Division of Innovation and Education Excellence (IEE), is seeking information from interested vendors on the process and costs for developing a statewide comparative government and civics education curriculum, civics assessment, and civics project-based assessment.

Background Information:

Senate Bill 23 (SB23), Civics Education, would direct the State Board of Education to develop and periodically review a statewide comparative government and civics education curriculum, civics assessment, and civics project-based assessment. This legislation was proposed during the 34th legislative session and will be under consideration during the Spring of 2026.

Response Information:

- DEED is seeking proposed project schedules, timelines, and scope of work for the development of a statewide comparative government and civics education curriculum, civics assessment, and civics project-based assessment aligned to the proposed requirements of SB23. See Attached for requirements.
- Vendors should include proposed costs for each item, including costs to convene Alaska educator and stakeholder groups to review and provide feedback on proposed curriculum and assessments.
- Vendors should include proposed timelines for completion of the work.
- Vendors should include a sufficient narrative to support their experience and qualifications to perform such work.

Important Notices:

This RFI does not extend any rights to prospective vendors or obligate the state to conduct a solicitation or purchase any goods or services, nor will the State be financially responsible for any costs associated with the preparation of any response for the requested information. This RFI is issued for the sole purpose of obtaining information as described in this notice. However, the information obtained from this request may be used to prepare a purchase or solicitation in the future.
