COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL CONDUCT

November 14, 2025

Anchorage & Zoom

Public Session

Chair Mead called the public session to order at 9:38 a.m. Present were judge members Temple and Wheelles, attorney members McClintock and Mores, and public members Kilbourn and Sheldon. Commissioner Fletcher was unavailable for the meeting, and Commissioner Satterberg would be joining late. Also present was the Commission's Executive Director, Marla Greenstein, and Administrative Assistant Aleta Bartimmo.

There were no changes to the agenda. The Commission then reviewed the prior public session meeting minutes. Commissioner Temple moved for approval of the June 27, 2025, public meeting minutes. Commissioner Kilbourn seconded the motion, and the minutes were approved unanimously.

Executive Director Greenstein presented the Director's Report. Ms. Greenstein reported on the current year FY26 budget and the final end-of-year FY25 budget. Requested increments for travel were not appropriated for FY26, but through savings in other line items, there can be up to $7000 that can be reallocated for necessary Commission travel.

Complaint processing is relatively current, but the Commission has received an increased level of complaints and there are 10 complaints currently needing investigation after this meeting (the Commission will be considering action on 12 complaints at this meeting in Closed Session as well as 20 nonjurisdictional matters for review). Ms. Greenstein also reported on the informal advisory opinions she gave since the last meeting. There were a total of 56 since the June meeting: 40 of which were given to judges, 9 to magistrates, 1 to a pro tem judge, 2 to court administrators, 2 to judicial applicants, 1 to a lawyer, and 1 to a fully retired judge. The issues concerned disqualification and disclosure, appearance of impropriety, and delay issues.

Ms. Greenstein next reported on her professional activities. She continues to do individual ethics orientations for newly appointed judges. The Code Revision Committee is completing their review. After public comments are received, the Code will be revised. In her national work with the American Bar Association, Ms. Greenstein continues to work as vice-chair of the ABA Judicial Conduct and Professionalism Committee. She also continues her ethics column for the Judges' Journal. She presented a session on Disclosure and Disqualification twice at the National Center for State Courts Judicial Ethics College. In addition, at her own expense, she participated in a panel at New York Law School on Court Appointed Neutral Ethics. Upcoming in-state presentations include an Alaska Bar CLE on how to successfully apply to become a judge, and at the Anchorage Women Lawyers annual ethics CLE on lawyers in crisis.

All Commission members' terms are full and current.

At the conclusion of the Director's Report, there was a vote to formally approve the draft FY27 Budget Request to the legislature. Commissioner Temple moved to approve the budget request. Commissioner Kilbourn seconded the motion, and it passed unanimously.

Closed Session Minutes
Anchorage

June 27, 2025

Commission Members discussed the various sessions that were valuable at the Judicial Ethics College in Louisville. The sessions were uniformly viewed favorably, and the Commission members shared views on the Determining the Appropriate Sanction session, as well as the new Artificial Intelligence issues for the court and judicial conduct.

The Commission next considered a proposed change to the Commission's current Rule 1(b)(1) that modifies notification of how the Commission handles speaking requests to refer to Rule 1(h) that had been modified at the June meeting. The proposal merely ensures that the Notice of the meeting reflect the requirements of the Rule itself. Commissioner Kilbourn moved to approve the proposed rule change. Commission McClintock seconded the motion, and it passed unanimously.

The Commission discussed possible dates for the next Commission meeting and set January 30th as the next meeting date. An effort will be made to set the full year's meeting dates in advance.

Public Session adjourned at 10:40 a.m.

Agency Commission on Judicial Conduct #770

The Commission on Judicial Conduct has the constitutional and statutory obligations to investigate and address allegations of judicial misconduct or disability concerning any state court judge. While a vast majority of Commission complaints are dismissed by the Commission after investigation into the facts, a few complaints may evolve into formal investigations and hearings before the Commission. The hearing process involves full pre-trial preparation and can be both time-consuming and expensive. Due to the Commission's fluctuating caseload, it is unable to anticipate the number of complaints that may go to formal hearing in any given year.

Staff continues to fully process an average incoming complaint within ninety days. If unusual situations arise (such as formal disciplinary hearings) the Commission adjusts its contractual expenses, when possible, to hire an investigator on contract for a very limited time and purpose; or hires a special counsel.

The Commission responds promptly to inquiries by the public. In addition, the Commission's Formal Ethics Opinions are routinely distributed with Commission informational brochures and complaint forms. Continuing educational activities includes: individualized ethics orientation sessions for new judges; ongoing educational ethics programs for state judicial officers and court staff; and, providing formal advisory opinions to judges. In addition, the Commission will continue to respond to public needs in the coming year by improving its public outreach.

Beginning in FY24, funding for special counsel and related formal hearing costs was transferred out of our general request and put in as a language appropriation not to exceed $75,000 for that purpose. This change more accurately reflects the need to respond quickly when there is a need for special counsel while also acknowledging that that need is unpredictable.

Marla N. Greenstein, Executive Director, 272-1033

Description of BRU Services and Responsibilities:

Created in the state constitution, the Commission on Judicial Conduct consists of nine members: three judges, three lawyers and three public members who are not lawyers or judges. By statute, the Commission is empowered to (1) inquire into allegations of judicial misconduct or disability; (2) hold hearings; (3) informally sanction judges; and (4) recommend formal sanctions to the supreme court. In addition, the Commission approved a procedure for issuing advisory ethics opinions to state judges. The opinions give ethical guidance to judges in response to their requests.

DESCRIPTION OF COMPONENT SERVICES:

Our full-time staff of two employees maintains a full-time office responding to public inquiries concerning judicial conduct matters and investigating ethical complaints against state court judges. We support a nine-member commission, providing constant information and seeking policy direction from its members. The commission holds quarterly in-person meetings and teleconferences as needed. Our office can be reached statewide by a toll-free number and our investigations entail research involving court locations throughout Alaska. Public portions of the quarterly meetings are held on Zoom to allow statewide participation.

Sarah Kathryn Bryan (Moderator) is an associate attorney at Shortell Law LLC. She earned her law degree from Seattle University School of Law during the COVID pandemic, took the Alaska Bar Exam, was certain that she had not passed, and by the end of the year had earned both a law license and a real estate license. So far, practicing both professions still works for her, but does not allow her as much time as she would like for cross-country skiing, pretending to know how to play the guitar, or training her two little dogs –and it shows. Sarah Kathryn Bryan serves the public as a member of the Anchorage Board of Platting and as a member of the AAWL Board of Directors.

Marla N. Greenstein (Panelist) is Executive Director of the Alaska Commission on Judicial Conduct, a position she has held since 1989. Ms. Greenstein has published articles in the areas of judicial selection and judicial discipline, including “Judicial Disqualification in Alaska Courts,” Alaska Law Review, June 2000. She serves on the Alaska Bar’s Ethics Committee and Fair and Impartial Courts Committee. Ms. Greenstein is the Ethics Column Editor for the American Bar Association’s Judges Journal, authoring the quarterly journal’s column. She has lectured widely in the area of judicial ethics and has served as faculty for international judicial ethics seminars in Indonesia, Micronesia and Russia. Ms. Greenstein served as co-chair for the Khabarovsk-Alaska Rule of Law Partnership during its 7 years of activity.

Emma Haddix (Panelist) was born and raised in Anchorage, and has been an attorney since 2006. After clerking, Emma worked at the District Attorney’s office almost 5 years. Emma worked two years in a small private practice handling mostly probate and estate planning. Emma has been in the child protection section of the AG’s office since 2014. Emma serves as one of the co-supervisors for her section. On a day-to-day basis, Emma advises OCS and represents them in court. Emma also supervises and trains new attorneys to the section and provides trainings to the client and other agencies. Emma gave up drinking in 2018 when she decided it was not good for her, her daughter, or their goals. Emma has served on the AK Bar association’s Lawyer’s Assistance Committee since 2019. When she’s not working, Emma enjoys raising her amazing daughter, biking, triathlons, reading, and earring making.

Susan Orlansky (Panelist) has practiced law in Anchorage since 1980, first as a staff attorney for the Alaska Court of Appeals, then for the Public Defender Agency, and then for 30-plus years in private practice, handling both civil and criminal litigation, with an emphasis on appeals. She is currently of counsel to Reeves Amodio, but two years ago, with support from the firm, she began working remotely, meaning she now has an office inside the ACLU of Alaska, and she spends about three-fourths of her time as a volunteer on ACLU cases, while maintaining a small private practice. Besides lawyering, she's a mother and a grandmother, and appreciates being outdoors in all kinds of weather.

Gita Sterling (Panelist; they/them) was born and raised in Alaska and moved to Portland, Oregon for their undergraduate and graduate education. Gita obtained their Master's degree in Marriage and Family Therapy from Lewis & Clark College in 2022. Gita is now a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist in Alaska, Oregon, and Washington. Gita owns and operates a private practice, Nocturne Counseling LLC, providing therapy to individuals, couples, and families. Gita's services focus on support through life transitions, identity exploration, and trauma processing.

MEMORANDUM

TO: Commission Members

FROM: Marla N. Greenstein
Executive Director

RE: Professional Travel

The Commission has a policy of allowing staff annual travel to the Association of Judicial Disciplinary Counsel Annual Meeting in July and to the August ABA Annual Meeting, with the expenses covered by the Commission's operating budget and allows additional professional travel should operating budget funds allow and subject to approval by the Commission. Typically, those meetings have included the American Bar Association mid-year meeting and the Association of Judicial Disciplinary Counsel mid-year board meeting. Due to a tighter travel budget this year, I will be paying to attend the ABA mid-year meeting at my own expense but request that the Commission cover the expenses for the March AJDC Board Meeting. We forecast that we do have the funds to cover that as well as our scheduled in-person Commission meetings for this Fiscal Year.

The ABA Mid-year meeting will be held in San Antonio, and I will attend from Wednesday, February 4th to Sunday, February 8th. At the ABA meeting I am involved in my judicial ethics committee work and work on the Judges Journal editorial board.

In late March, the Association of Judicial Disciplinary Counsel Board will be meeting in Oklahoma City from March 23-26. It is the meeting of many of my associates across the country where we discuss current issues and plan our July Annual Meeting program. It should be a total expense of approximately $2500.

MEMORANDUM

TO: Alaska Judicial Officers

FROM: Marla N. Greenstein
Executive Director

RE: Allowable Charitable Giving

This is the time of year when we are all approached for donations for many worthy causes. The Alaska Code of Judicial Conduct not only allows donations to charitable causes but actually encourages it for causes related to improvement of the administration of justice issues that include all not-for-profit entities that support access to justice, indigent representation and legal education. Canon 4C(3)(b) in fact provides an exception to the general prohibition on soliciting funds, to allow broader judicial involvement for events that seek to honor a judge for organizations that fall within those purposes.

It came to my attention that some judges have viewed the Alaska Bar Foundation Scholarship Fund as one that is not permitted for judges to support financially. That is incorrect, the Code actually encourages contributions to that kind of effort. Alaska Legal Services and the various Youth Courts are similarly efforts where individual support from judicial officers is not only appropriate, but encouraged.

Organizations that are NOT appropriate for donations by judicial officers are any political organization or any organization that frequently litigates before the courts.

He spent the next 13 years primarily practicing family law, in addition to a broad span of other areas. In 2015, he was appointed to serve on the Child Support Review Committee, which he now chairs. He was appointed to the bench in 2022 and, in 2025, was appointed to chair the Family Rules Committee. Judge Wheelles enjoys spending time with his family, camping, hunting, and reading. He was appointed to the Commission in 2024.

B. Types of Complaints the Commission May Address (“Jurisdictional”)

For a complaint to be considered and investigated by the Commission, it must allege specific facts that, if true, would constitute judicial misconduct or disability.

1. Misconduct

The broadest category of conduct complaints against judges falls under the term "misconduct." Judicial misconduct has a very specific meaning under the Code of Judicial Conduct. The Code of Judicial Conduct generally governs the activities of judges both on and off the bench. It is a comprehensive statement of appropriate judicial behavior and has been adopted by the Alaska Supreme Court as part of the Rules of Court. Judicial misconduct can be divided into several categories.

(a) Improper Courtroom Behavior

At times complaints against judges allege improper behavior in the courtroom during a trial. Allegations of improper courtroom behavior may include: improper consideration and treatment of attorneys, parties, witnesses, and others in the hearing; improper physical conduct; or persistent failure to dispose of business promptly and responsibly.

Examples of improper courtroom behavior include racist or sexist comments by a judge, and sleeping or drunkenness on the bench. Judges can also be disciplined for administrative failures such as taking an excessive amount of time to make a decision.

(b) Improper or Illegal Influence

Judges must be independent from all outside influences that may affect their ability to be fair and impartial. Consequently, judges are restricted as to the types of activities in which they can participate. At a minimum, judges cannot allow family, social, or political relationships to influence any judicial decision. Judges also should not hear a matter in which the judge has a personal interest in the outcome. Extreme examples of improper influence would include the giving or receiving of gifts, bribes, loans, or favors. To help assure judicial independence, judges are required to file financial disclosure statements with the court and other financial statements with the Alaska Public Offices Commission.

(c) Impropriety Off the Bench

Judges are required to live an exemplary life off the bench, as well. Consequently, the Commission has the authority and responsibility to look at judges' activities outside of the courtroom. Complaints dealing with off-the-bench conduct might allege: misuse of public employees or misappropriation of property or money for personal purposes; improper speech or associations; interference with a pending or impending lawsuit; lewd or corrupt personal life; or use of the judicial position to extort or embezzle funds. Clearly, off-the-bench conduct includes a wide range of behavior from merely inappropriate actions to criminal violations.

(d) Other Improper Activities

Judges are also subject to restrictions in other aspects of their positions. These include prohibitions against: conducting proceedings or discussions involving one party to a legal dispute; interfering with the attorney-client relationship; bias; improper campaign activities; abusing the prestige of the judicial office; obstructing justice; and criminal behavior.

2. Physical or Mental Disability

Apart from allegations of misconduct in office, the Commission also has the authority and responsibility to address allegations of judges' physical and mental disabilities. Disabilities may include: alcohol or drug abuse, senility, serious physical illness, or mental illness.

The Commission can require medical examinations as part of its investigation and also can recommend counseling when appropriate.

C. Complaints the Commission May Not Address (“Nonjurisdictional”)

The Commission has no authority to address questions of law, which are the most common complaints the Commission receives. Frequently, complaints allege dissatisfaction with decisions that judges make in their judicial capacity. For example, individuals often complain of wrong child custody awards or sentences that judges impose in criminal cases. The Commission may not enter into cases or reverse judicial decisions. That role belongs to the appellate courts.

II. HOW THE COMMISSION OPERATES

A. Filing a Complaint

While the Commission may initiate its own investigation, complaints can also be filed against any state judge by any member of the public. A blank complaint form is in Appendix F of this report. A form is not necessary, but the complaint should be in writing and should include enough information to enable the Commission staff to begin an investigation. If necessary information is not provided, the complaint will be dismissed for insufficient information. Necessary information includes: the judge's name, the conduct complained of, a case number if it involves a court case, and the names of others present or aware of the facts. Complaints must be signed and should be sent to:

Alaska Commission on Judicial Conduct
510 L Street, Suite 585
Anchorage, Alaska 99501

Signed complaints may be e-mailed to administrator@acjc.state.ak.us. Commission staff is available to provide technical assistance to anyone trying to submit a complaint.

B. Complaint Investigation

Soon after a complaint is filed, Commission staff will review and research the accusation, which can include reviewing relevant CourtView information and interviewing the person who filed the complaint to determine the facts giving rise to the complaint and to ascertain whether or not the complaint appears to fall within the jurisdiction of the Commission. The Commission reviews all complaints and staff research and determines whether the complaint is jurisdictional or nonjurisdictional. Complaints that are nonjurisdictional are dismissed. All jurisdictional complaints are investigated. If after further investigation the Commission finds the accusation to be without merit, it will be dismissed. If a preliminary investigation supports the complaint, a formal investigation begins. It is at this stage that the judge involved is informed of the complaint. A formal investigation often includes an interview with the judge.

Complaints filed with the Commission and all Commission inquiries and investigations are confidential. If the Commission finds probable cause exists to find a judge has committed misconduct that warrants action more serious than a private admonishment or counseling, a formal statement of charges is issued. The statement of charges is public information. Some time after the formal charges issue, the Commission will hold an open public formal hearing on the matter. At the hearing, Special Counsel (hired by the Commission) presents the evidentiary case against the judge. The judge is often represented by an attorney who presents the judge's evidence and defenses. The full Commission usually serves as the factfinder in the matter.

The Commission's decision after a formal hearing is based on the evidence presented and is a public document. It may decide to exonerate the judge of the charge or charges if there is a lack of clear and convincing evidence of misconduct or recommend that the Alaska Supreme Court take formal action. The Alaska Supreme Court may impose one of the following sanctions against the judge: suspension, removal, retirement, censure, or reprimand. The Alaska Supreme Court independently reviews the evidence and may decide not to impose any discipline.

COMMISSION COMPLAINT PROCESS

The complaint process begins when a written complaint is received by Commission staff. If the Commission determines that the complaint falls outside the Commission's authority, such as a complaint about an attorney or about a judge's legal decision, the complaint is dismissed* by the Commission. If the complaint appears to be within the Commission's authority, a case number is assigned to the complaint and an initial investigation is begun.

During the initial investigation stage, a complaint is examined to determine if there is enough evidence to warrant a further investigation. Generally, this process includes close examination of the written complaint (including any evidence or explanation attached), an inspection of any relevant court documents, and, if applicable, review of court hearing audio.

If the Commission determines that there is no reliable evidence supporting the complaint, it is dismissed* by the Commission at a meeting.

If the Commission determines the complaint appears to have enough substance to warrant action, the judge in question is notified and given an opportunity to respond. During this stage, the judge may provide information showing the complaint to be unfounded, may receive a private informal admonishment, or private counseling. The Commission may, after a determination of probable cause, issue formal charges of one or more violations of the Code of Judicial Conduct. The issuing of formal charges by the Commission starts a period of formal discovery, where both the Special Counsel hired by the Commission and the accused judge gather evidence and information to support their respective positions.

After the formal discovery period, a public hearing is held. The hearing is usually conducted by the Commission (but it is possible that a Special Master could be appointed). Special Counsel presents the case against the judge and the judge will often hire an attorney for his or her defense. There are two possible outcomes from the public hearing; either the charges are dismissed, or the Commission finds the judge committed misconduct and recommends a sanction to the Alaska Supreme Court.

The Alaska Supreme Court may impose the Commission's recommended sanction, modify it, or reject the Commission's decision.

*Prior to dismissal by the Commission, staff notifies the complainant in writing of the staff recommendation to dismiss.

III. CALENDAR YEAR 2025 ACTIVITIES

A. Summary of Complaints

The tables that follow summarize the current Commission caseload. Complaint filing numbers reflect only written complaints received by the Commission and do not reflect the numerous telephone inquiries staff receive. In 2025, staff responded in writing to 50 inquiries and more than 200 verbal and e-mail inquiries. “Complaints closed” during the annual report year may include complaints filed in a prior year but not closed until the annual report year.

In 2025, staff continued to make a concentrated effort to screen many complaints before they actually were filed with the Commission. 30 new jurisdictional complaints were filed (three of the 30 were originally staff designated nonjurisdictional complaints.) Of those jurisdictional complaints, 11 were eventually dismissed. Seven remaining jurisdictional complaints from 2024 were dismissed in 2025.

The Commission opens approximately two complaints every month that require staff investigation. In August of 1991, the Commission adopted a policy of processing all new incoming complaints within 90 days. Should the Commission receive more than four jurisdictional complaints in a month, the Commission established a minimum goal of fully investigating at least three complaints per month.

Therefore, the numbers before 1989, published in prior annual reports, are not directly comparable to those after 1989.

B. Commission Meetings

During 2025, the Commission held three regular meetings, one Formal Hearing, and 6 Special Meetings. With a full-time staff of two, the Commission continues to increase its case processing and fine-tune its procedures. Staff consistently works to increase staff responsiveness. Increased responsiveness increases the Commission's accessibility and has resulted in increased interaction with the public. Current funding levels allow for three regular meetings a year in Anchorage.

C. Outreach

Commission brochures inform the public of its purpose and functions. Brochures are available to the general public free of charge through the Commission's office. In addition, Commission members and staff address bar associations, court administrators, local community groups, and judicial programs. The Commission also maintains membership in the National Center for State Courts, Center for Judicial Ethics.

D. Formal Proceedings

The Commission held a Formal Hearing and forwarded a recommendation of discipline to the Supreme Court in one matter in 2025.

E. Rules of Procedure

The Commission's operations are governed by Rules of Procedure. While the statutes relating to the Commission broadly outline the Commission's responsibilities, the Rules of Procedure define how the Commission operates. In 1991, the Commission revised its rules clarifying many rules and increasing their scope. In 1998, a committee consisting of four commission members, one attorney member, one public member, and two judge members, was established for the purpose of refining and modifying the Rules of Procedure. The Commission adopted this revision on December 1, 2000.

The Rules Revision Committee's work focused on enhancing the rules in the areas such as discovery, evidence, motions, role of the chair, executive director's role and authority, standards for reopening complaints, deliberative process, the formal hearing, and settlement. In June 2003, the Notice Rule was revised to allow notice to a judge in anticipation of action at an upcoming meeting. Rule 5(e) was revised to specify the form that information would be released pursuant to a waiver in 2009. In August 2013, the Commission amended Rule 11 to allow for "informal advice" by the Commission to a judge where there is no misconduct. In May 2020, the Commission amended Rule 1 to provide for public notice of formal hearings, and in May 2021, made further amendments to Rule 1 to clarify notice of meetings and the procedure for members of the general public to speak at a Commission meeting. Most recently, additional amendments were made to Rule 1 in June and November of 2025 to refine those same provisions.

Most rule revisions are circulated for public comment prior to their adoption. The Commission's efforts are directed toward improving its public responsiveness, creating the fairest procedures, and fulfilling its directive under the state constitution. The Commission's current Rules of Procedure are included in Appendix I.

F. Staffing

The Commission staff currently consists of an executive director and an administrative assistant.

IV. COMMISSION FINANCES AND BUDGET

The Commission's finances are planned according to the state fiscal year (July 1 - June 30). Each year, the Commission on Judicial Conduct submits its budget request to the legislature. The Commission's resources are appropriated from the state general operating fund.

A. Fiscal Year 2026 Budget

In FY 2026, the legislature appropriated $577,900.00 to the Commission. This money enables the Commission to operate a staff of one executive director and one administrative assistant.

In addition, in FY 2026, the legislature provided for a language appropriation not to exceed $75,000 to engage Special Counsel if needed.

B. Calendar Year 2025 Activity

All but two of the previous year’s pending complaints were closed in 2025.

V. FUTURE ACTIVITIES

A. Commission Meetings

January 30, 2026	Zoom/Anchorage
April 2026	Zoom/Anchorage
June 18, 2026	Zoom/Anchorage
September 2026	Zoom/Anchorage
December 2026	Zoom/Anchorage

B. Caseload

In 2026, the Commission anticipates receiving approximately 100 complaints against judicial officers, of which 24 may require staff investigation.

C. Legislation

At the Commission's request, the House Judiciary Committee introduced a bill in 1989 that opened the Commission's formal hearings to the public. House Bill 268, passed in May 1990, also established a standard deadline of six years for complaints against judges to be filed with the Commission. (The former law required a period of not more than six years before the start of the judge's current term; creating different time limits for different judges.) The law also explicitly includes part-time or temporary judges within the Commission's authority. That law's enactment also made all Commission formal hearings and recommendations to the Alaska Supreme Court open to the public. In 1997, the Commission conducted its first public hearing under this legislation.

D. Formal Ethics Opinions

In 1991, the Commission issued its first Formal Ethics Opinions. These opinions are based on actual Commission complaints that resulted in some form of private informal action. Formal Ethics Opinions are reported in a way that protects confidentiality. Only the minimum facts necessary to an understanding of the opinion are reported. The Commission continues to adopt new formal ethics opinions as situations arise. These opinions are included in Appendix G.

E. Advisory Opinions

At the March 1, 1996, meeting, the Commission adopted a rule authorizing the issuance of advisory opinions to judges who would like guidance regarding ethical dilemmas. Special committees of the Commission draft opinions in response to written requests. A final opinion issues from the Commission and is confidential unless the requesting judge asks that it be public. The Commission adopted no new advisory opinions in 2025. Advisory opinions are included in Appendix H.

Staff also provided approximately 145 informal ethics opinions to judicial officers and court personnel.

F. Other Activities

In 2026, the Commission will continue developing and conducting educational programs for judicial officers on various judicial conduct issues. While advisory opinions provide guidance to individual judges addressing specific ethical issues, there is an ongoing need to provide general guidance to all judges in this changing field.

Again in 2025, the Commission provided self-study materials covering a variety of ethics topics for both new and experienced judges. In addition, the Commission continues to participate with the court system's judicial education committees and presents judicial programs periodically addressing a variety of ethical issues.

In 2000, the Commission jointly published Alaska Judicial Applicant Guidelines with the Alaska Judicial Council and the Alaska Bar Association. The publication gives guidance to judicial applicants and their supporters regarding the ethical considerations when soliciting support from others. There are suggestions for preferred methods and tone of communications as well as an appendix of resource materials. This publication was reprinted in 2003.

Other outreach activities will continue and expand to further general public awareness of the Commission's functions. Staff will continue to address community groups and meet individually with members of the general public. In addition, the Commission will periodically pay for display newspaper advertisements that highlight the Commission's purpose and invite public participation.

The Commission also hopes to continue work with the state and local bar associations to identify areas of concern that attorneys have encountered. A very small percentage of current complaints against judges are filed by attorneys.

Massachusetts Commission 2024 annual report

CINDY GRAY

JAN 12 • PAID

READ IN APP ↗

Late last year, the Massachusetts Commission on Judicial Conduct released its annual report for 2024, including summaries of some of the complaints that it disposed of confidentially. The report explains that the Commission received 1,117 complaints in 2024 (879 through the online complaint form on its website). Only 39 of those 1,117 complaints fell within its jurisdiction, in other words, alleged specific facts that, “if true, would constitute judicial misconduct or disability.”

This post is part of the extra content that comes with a paid subscription to the Judicial Conduct Dispatch. Thank you for your support.

The Commission dismissed 40 complaints in 2024 (some pending from prior years) — 4 after screening, 29 after an investigation did not find any judicial misconduct, and 7 with an expression of concern. The Commission did not conclude any public proceedings in 2024 (although in December 2024 it did file formal charges against a judge based on her role in allowing a defendant to avoid being taken into custody by ICE following his arraignment. That case is still pending.)

The report summarizes examples of complaints that the Commission dismissed after a screening or investigation or with an expression of concern.

- Finding that the seriousness or notoriety of the alleged misconduct did not outweigh the potential prejudicial effect of an investigation, the Commission dismissed an anonymous complainant alleging that a housing court judge had engaged in politically oriented activity, including specific information about the political activity that the complainant had observed, but without any credible evidence or information that the judge was responsible for the political activity. (Commission Rule 6F provides that the Commission will only investigate anonymous allegations that “if true, constitute misconduct or disability within the jurisdiction of the Commission, and the seriousness or the notoriety of the misconduct alleged outweighs the potential prejudicial effect of an investigation into the merits of the complaint.”)

- Finding that there was no good cause to investigate the stale complaint, the Commission dismissed a complaint filed by a self-represented defendant/tenant in a summary process matter alleging that a housing court judge treated him discourteously and failed to grant him a full opportunity to be heard in 2 hearings held approximately 2 years before the complaint was filed. (Commission Rule 6E provides that a complaint is considered stale if it arises out of acts or omissions occurring more than 1 year prior to the date the complaint was filed.) In its screening of the complaint, the Commission reviewed the materials submitted by the complainant, asked for further information and evidence from the complainant, and interviewed the complainant. The complainant was unable to provide any specific examples or evidence to support his claims, and the Commission screening “revealed evidence that what the complainant perceived as improper pressure from the judge was actually actions taken by the judge in an effort to help the complainant present his case effectively, consistent with Rule 2.6(A) of the Code.” (Rule 2.6(A) of the Massachusetts code of judicial conduct provides, in part: “A judge may make reasonable efforts, consistent with the law, to facilitate the ability of all litigants, including self-represented litigants, to be fairly heard.”)
- The Commission dismissed as frivolous or unfounded a complaint filed by a self-represented party in a child custody matter that included specific factual allegations that a probate and family court judge had accepted bribes in exchange for ruling against the complainant but did not include any credible information or evidence to support of those allegations. When interviewed as part of the Commission screening, the complainant was unable to provide any specific facts or evidence to support their claim.
- The Commission dismissed a complaint filed by a represented party in a divorce matter alleging that a probate and family court judge had treated them discourteously and had created an appearance of bias against them. The Commission reviewed the audio record and docket sheet and them. The Commission reviewed the audio record and docket sheet and interviewed the judge and the complainant. The investigation “did not reveal any evidence that would cause a reasonable objective observer to believe that the judge had a bias against the complainant.”

- The Commission dismissed a complaint filed by a self-represented party in a harassment prevention order matter alleging that a judge treated them discourteously and failed to grant him a full opportunity to be heard during an extension hearing. The Commission reviewed the audio record and docket sheet and interviewed the complainant and the judge. The investigation did not reveal any evidence to support the allegations, and the audio record showed that the judge had treated all parties, including the complainant, politely and professionally and had granted all parties a full opportunity to be heard.
- With an expression of concern, the Commission dismissed a complaint filed by a self-represented party in a harassment prevention order matter alleging that a judge treated them discourteously, failed to provide them with a full opportunity to be heard, and created an appearance of bias against them, specifically, that the judge rolled their eyes while the complainant spoke, did not address the complainant by their full name, and did not permit the complainant to present the testimony of a relevant witness. The Commission reviewed the audio records and docket sheet and interviewed the complainant and the judge. The investigation did not reveal any evidence that the judge treated the complainant discourteously or created an appearance of bias against him, but there was some evidence that the judge may have failed to grant the complainant a full opportunity to be heard by failing to allow the complainant to present testimony from a witness because the judge had already taken testimony from the witness in a separate but related matter. Although the Commission dismissed the complaint, it expressed its concern to the judge “to be mindful of creating a complete record in the matters that come before the judge, even when proposed testimony or evidence may already be on the record from another hearing.”

As its 2024 report demonstrates, the majority of the work done by the Massachusetts Commission is confidential, and most complaints are dismissed. That is true of all judicial conduct commissions, and that statistic is the basis for much misunderstanding and criticism of commissions. Summaries of confidential actions such as those included in the Massachusetts Commission report can help explain the high dismissal rate and may increase public understanding of what constitutes judicial misconduct and the limits of the judicial discipline process. It is an effort to provide some transparency that other commissions could consider adopting as a best practice if, like most commissions, they do not already do so.

Current New Non-Jurisdictional Letter

CONFIDENTIAL

January __, 2026

Re: Nonjurisdictional Accusation Judge _____

Dear _____:

I have reviewed your complaint asserting that the judge in your criminal case made several decisions that you disagree with and believe are wrong. This Commission does not have the legal authority to review the correctness of any judicial decision, including whether the judge properly _____ and applied constitutional principles correctly. These decisions, in themselves, are not enough to establish any ethics issue.

The Commission on Judicial Conduct has limited powers and duties under Alaska law (see A.S. 22.30.011) and has no power to enter into cases or reverse judicial decisions. The complaint you have filed does not appear to raise an ethical issue as defined by the Code of Judicial Conduct. The judge's decisions may be appealable to a higher court, but do not appear to constitute misconduct as defined in A.S. 22.30.011 (copy enclosed).

The full commission will independently review the recommendation of dismissal of your complaints at its next meeting, currently set for January 30th. If this complaint is not dismissed, it will be opened as a jurisdictional complaint. You will be informed of either outcome.

Sincerely,

Marla N. Greenstein
Executive Director

I have reviewed your complaint asserting that the judge in your criminal case made several decisions that you disagree with and believe are wrong. This Commission does not have the legal authority to review the correctness of any judicial decision, including whether the judge properly _____ and applied constitutional principles correctly. These decisions, in themselves, are not enough to establish any ethics issue under the Alaska Code of Judicial Conduct.

Alaska's Code of Judicial Conduct sets out ethics rules for judges. The Commission on Judicial Conduct is limited by law to hearing only those complaints concerning conduct addressed by that Code. The Commission's statutory authority does not allow it to hear issues that can be reviewed by another court, such as a judge's decisions concerning evidence or legal issues raised in motions. Even if all facts alleged in your complaint were accepted as true, your complaint would not raise any issues of judicial misconduct or disability as defined by the Code.

A more complete explanation of the types of complaints the Commission can consider can be found in the Commission's Annual Report, available on the Commission's website (<https://acjc.alaska.gov>) under "Resources." The judge's decisions may be appealable to a higher court, but do not appear to constitute misconduct as defined in A.S. 22.30.011 (copy enclosed).

The full commission will independently review the recommendation of dismissal of your complaints at its next meeting currently set for _____. If this complaint is not dismissed, it will be opened as a jurisdictional complaint. You will be informed of either outcome.

Re: Nonjurisdictional Accusations Judge

Dear _____:

At its November 14th meeting, the full Commission reviewed your complaint asserting that the judge made wrong decisions in your case by _____. This Commission does not have the legal power to review decisions judges made in court proceedings like those listed in your complaint.

Alaska's Code of Judicial Conduct sets out specific ethics rules for judges. The Code does not use the word "ethics" because it is a very specific Code of Conduct. As your complaint does not raise any issues under the Alaska Code of Judicial Conduct, your complaint was unanimously dismissed.

The Commission is limited by law to hearing only those complaints that arise under the Alaska Code of Judicial Conduct. The Commission's statutory authority does not allow it to hear issues that can be raised in an appeal, such as a judge's legal decisions in a court case.

Sincerely,

Hon. Amy Mead

Alaska judges will soon be bound by tighter ethics rules under a rewrite of court standards

The state's existing code of ethics dates to 1998 and was based upon a national standard from 1990

The Alaska Court System is preparing to finalize new ethics guidelines that will determine whether state judges must opt out from hearing cases due to personal conflicts.

An extensive new ethics code, modeled on a national standard drafted by the American Bar Association, is open for public comment through Jan. 23.

The changes, which stretch for dozens of dense, jargon-filled pages, prescribe things like what a judge can ethically do during an election, how to respond if someone's life might be endangered by secrecy and even what happens if an attorney is drunk in the courtroom.

“The primary purpose in my mind ... is so a judge can look at it to determine whether what the judge is thinking about doing or is being asked to do is ethical,” said former Alaska Chief Justice Daniel Winfree, a key member of the committee that has been working on the redraft since 2018.

That predates recent concerns over the ethical standards used by the U.S. Supreme Court, whose members have been accused of accepting excessive gifts from people with issues in front of the court.

Alaska’s existing code of ethics dates to 1998 and was based on a model released in 1990 by the American Bar Association.

The association released a new model code in 2007, but Alaska didn’t adopt it. In 2018, as the court system dealt with a rising number of Alaskans representing themselves in court, judges were struggling with what they could and couldn’t do to help, Winfree said.

He suggested adopting part of the new model code to help with the issue.

“And all of a sudden, it got morphed into, ‘Well, we haven’t looked at the entire (code) since the whole thing changed. And so, would you like to chair a committee?’”

Winfree’s been working on the new code since then, continuing even after his retirement from the Alaska Supreme Court in 2023.

“It took a lot longer than I would have expected,” he said.

The code was supposed to become effective in April, but Winfree and others in the court system wanted a longer public comment period. It’s now scheduled for October 2026, time enough to make changes and fix any issues raised through public comments, according to Winfree.

The code applies to members of the Alaska Supreme Court, district court judges, superior court judges, and magistrates. All but magistrates are also covered by the Alaska Commission on Judicial Conduct.

Federal U.S. District Court Judge Joshua Kindred resigned from Alaska’s federal courts in 2024 after an investigation found significant misconduct. He was later disbarred by the Alaska Supreme Court.

Kindred was a federal judge, not a state one, but the new draft gives a nod to his misconduct.

As Winfree explained, the new code “makes clear that judges are supervisors and that they have other obligations as supervisors than just an obligation to not be a bad person.”

Winfrey said that as public comments arrive, the drafting committee will examine each one to consider whether changes need to be made to the existing draft code.

“Depending on how many comments there are, we’ll probably have a couple of meetings with the Supreme Court to go over each of these things, make final changes, and then go to print,” he said.

Correction: The revised code would apply to magistrate judges. A prior version of this article was incorrect.

The Challenges of Modern Judicial Ethics

By Marla N. Greenstein

Like the articles in this issue, to look forward and anticipate future ethical challenges, we first must examine our past. The evolution of the Code of Judicial Conduct reflects the evolution of the complexity of issues that judges face, the expanding roles that judges now play in addressing social and family issues, and the political pressures that accompany the expanding roles.

The 1972 Model Code of Judicial Conduct expanded on the original Canons by incorporating newly developed caselaw on judicial discipline and disqualification. That Code established guardrails and guidelines but did not address with specificity the many ways that the principles are applied. Almost 20 years later, the 1990 revised Model Code of Judicial Conduct addressed with increased specificity the need to consider judges' community activities and political speech while recognizing the tension between limiting judicial speech to protect impartiality and at the same time allowing judicial candidates to participate in a meaningful way in their own elections. In 2007, a reorganized Code of Judicial Conduct recognized the need to clarify the mandatory provisions, taking extra care to ensure that the comments not include any rules that would require disciplinary action. So too, this most recent reworking of the Code addressed the complex roles that judges play in ensuring the rights of self-represented litigants, participating in therapeutic courts and other court resolution programs, and judicial outreach. Yet with all these revisions, judges are anticipating the ethical issues that technology and public discontent now present.

Current issues that state codes now attempt to address directly include harassment in the workplace, use of social media, special issues around remote hearings, electronic access to the courts for filing and information, and issues surrounding evolving generative artificial intelligence (AI). In fact, the use of technology and its displacement of paper are probably the largest day-to-day changes affecting the courts and the application of ethics rules. The essential concepts do not change, but their application may become less clear. For example, how does a judge handle an email directly from a party to litigation? What does a judge do if, in a remote hearing, it is discovered that the audio was not working for all participants? How does a judge guide a law clerk's internet research to ensure its integrity and that it is limited to research of the law and not facts? What is the judge's role in ensuring that incarcerated defendants have access to the electronic documents concerning their case and electronic notice of hearings? If a judge discovers that an attorney has used generative AI to produce filings that are inaccurate, what is their duty to report that conduct?

What we can learn from looking to our past is that the concepts are still useful, but their application requires a new orientation. It will be difficult for Codes of Judicial Conduct to keep up with each quickly evolving change. What is clear is that judges need to be mindful that a changing workplace and public environment will require a new awareness of the ethical issues that are implicated with each change. ■

Article 4, Sections 10-14

CONSTITUTION OF ALASKA

Art. IV, § 10

Section 10. Commission on Judicial Conduct. The Commission on Judicial Conduct shall consist of nine members, as follows: three persons who are justices or judges of state courts, elected by the Justices and judges of state courts; three members who have practiced law in this state for ten years, appointed by the governor from nominations made by the governing body of the organized bar and subject to confirmation by a majority of the members of the legislature in joint session; and three persons who are not judges, retired judges, or members of the state bar, appointed by the governor and subject to confirmation by a majority of the members of the legislature in joint session. In addition to being subject to impeachment under Section 12 of this article, a justice or judge may be disqualified from acting as such and may be suspended, removed from office, retired, or censured by the supreme court upon the recommendation of the commission. The powers and duties of the commission and the bases for judicial disqualification shall be established by law. [Amendment approved November 2, 1982]

Cross references. — For provisions on the powers and duties of the Commission on Judicial Conduct, see AS 22.30.11. For proceedings when a successful candidate for judicial retention or the campaign treasurer or deputy campaign treasurer of such a candidate has been convicted of a violation of the state elections campaign laws, see AS 15.13.120(f)(8).

Effect of amendments. — The amendment, effective November 2, 1982 (12th Legislature's LR 36), substituted "Conduct" for "Qualifications" following "Commission on Judicial," substituted "three persons who are justices or judges of the state courts" for "one justice of the supreme court" preceding "elected by the justices," substituted "and judges of the state courts" for "of the supreme court; three judges of the superior court; one judge of the district court, elected by the judges of the district court" following "elected by the justices," substituted "three" for "two" preceding "members who have practiced law," added "governor from nominations made by the" preceding "governing body of the organized bar," added "and subject to confirmation by a majority of the members of the legislature in joint session" following "governing body of the organized bar" and substituted "three for "two" preceding "persons who are not judges."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Scope of commission's powers. — This section only empowers the commission to recommend sanctions to the Alaska Supreme Court. Granting the commission the authority to impose sanctions is not permitted. In re Inquiry Concerning a Judge, 762 P.2d 1292 (Alaska 1988) Cited in Abood v. Gorsuch, 703 P.2d 1158 (Alaska 1985)

Cross reference. — For statutory provisions regarding Commission on Judicial Qualifications, see AS 22.30.010 — 22.30.080.

Effect of amendment. — The amendment approved August 27, 1968 (5th Legislature's 2d FCCS SCS CSHJR 74) rewrote this section to establish the commission and provide for "disqualification" of judges. Formerly, this section dealt only with incapacity and retirement of judges.

Basis of 1968 amendment. — The Alaska Commission on Judicial Qualifications was created by a constitutional amendment, which became effective in 1968. This amendment is based on a 1966 revision of the judicial article of the California Constitution. In re Hanson, Sup. Ct. Op. No. 1117 (File No. 2311), 532 P.2d 303 (1975). This section vests in the supreme court the ultimate authority in disciplinary matters affecting the judiciary. In re Hanson, Sup. Ct. Op. No. 1117 (File No. 2311), 532 P.2d 303 (1975). This section and AS 22.30.070(c) unambiguously establish the supreme court of Alaska as the body entrusted with the ultimate dispositive decision in a judicial qualifications matter. In re Hanson, Sup. Ct. Op. No. 1117 (File No. 2311), 532 P.2d 303 (1975).

Art. IV, § 10

Power of supreme court to sanction judge under this section. — Concerning the subject of sanctions this section and AS 22.30.070(c)(2) provide that upon recommendation of the Commission on Judicial Qualifications the supreme court of Alaska may suspend, remove, retire or censure a judge. Inquiry Concerning Robson, Sup. Ct. Op. No. 825 (File No. 1552), 500 P.2d 657 (1972).

Supreme court is to exercise independent judgment. — Normally considerable weight will be accorded to a given recommendation from the Commission on Judicial Qualifications, if supported by an adequate factual basis. Nevertheless, both this section and AS 22.30.070(c)(2) clearly establish that the supreme court of Alaska is to exercise its independent judgment in determining an appropriate sanction, if any, as to any recommendation made by the commission. Inquiry Concerning Robson, Sup. Ct. Op. No. 825 (File No. 1552), 500 P.2d 657 (1972). The supreme court's scope of review in a judicial qualifications proceeding should be that of an independent evaluation of the evidence. In re Hanson, Sup. Ct. Op. No. 1117 (File No. 2311), 532 P.2d 303 (1975).

And cannot adopt commission's sanction recommendations automatically. — It would be tantamount to an abdication of its constitutional and statutory obligations if the supreme court were to adopt the sanction recommendations of the Commission on Judicial Qualifications automatically. Inquiry Concerning Robson, Sup. Ct. Op. No. 825 (File No. 1552), 500 P.2d 657 (1972).

Substantial evidence test employed in reviewing commission's findings of fact. — Regarding the scope of review which the supreme court should exercise in reviewing findings of fact of the Commission on Judicial Qualifications, there is no reason to depart from the substantial evidence test which has heretofore been employed in reviewing matters coming to the supreme court from administrative agencies and other governmental bodies. Inquiry Concerning Robson, Sup. Ct. Op. No. 825 (File No. 1552), 500 P.2d 657 (1972).

But review of commission's recommendation is broader than substantial evidence criterion. — Under the discretionary grant of power to the supreme court under this section and AS 22.30.070(c)(2), supreme court review of a particular recommendation by the commission is necessarily broader than the substantial evidence criterion adopted for review of findings of fact made by the commission. Inquiry Concerning Robson, Sup. Ct. Op. No. 825 (File No. 1552), 500 P.2d 657 (1972).

Duties of supreme court in cases concerning suspension, etc., of judge. — In every case concerning the suspension, removal, retirement or censorship of a judge, the supreme court must insure that procedural due process has been accorded the judicial officer proceeded against and that requisite findings of fact have been made and are supported by substantial evidence. The supreme court is further obligated to decide whether the commission's recommended sanction is justified by the record and is in accord with the objectives of the commission as reflected in the relevant constitutional and statutory provisions. Inquiry Concerning Robson, Sup. Ct. Op. No. 825 (File No. 1552), 500 P.2d 657 (1972).

Imposition of more serious sanction than censure held inappropriate. — Where judicial conduct which had been prejudicial to the administration of justice and had brought the judicial office into disrepute, was weighed against the relative judicial inexperience of petitioner at the time, the supreme court concluded that imposition of a more serious sanction than censure would be inappropriate. Inquiry Concerning Robson, Sup. Ct. Op. No. 825 (File No. 1552), 500 P.2d 657 (1972).

Supreme court sanction decision made part of public record. — Where the actions of a judge were serious enough infractions to justify its following the censure recommendation of the Commission on Judicial Qualifications, the supreme court was of the opinion that given the necessity for the creation of such a commission and the need for enforcement of standards of judicial conduct and canons of judicial ethics, these ends were more fully served by making of record its sanction decision. By making its sanction part of the public record, the supreme court believed that the public's confidence would be maintained, both in the workings of the commission and in the ability of the judicial branch of government to insure its continued integrity. Inquiry Concerning Robson, Sup. Ct. Op. No. 825 (File No. 1552), 500 P.2d 657 (1972).

Quoted in Delahay v. State, Sup. Ct. Op. No. 648 (File No. 1252), 476 P.2d 908 (1970).

Art. IV, § 11 CONSTITUTION OF ALASKA Art. IV, §13

Section 11. Retirement. Justices and judges shall be retired at the age of seventy except as provided in this article. The basis and amount of retirement pay shall be prescribed by law. Retired judges shall render no further service on the bench except for special assignments as provided by court rule.

Quoted in Delahay v. State, Sup. Ct. Op. No. 648 (File No. 1252), 476 P.2d 908 (1970).

Section 13. Compensation. Justices, judges, and members of the judicial council and the Commission on Judicial Conduct shall receive compensation as prescribed by law. Compensation of justices and judges shall not be diminished during their terms of office, unless by general law applying to all salaried officers of the State. [Amendment approved August 27, 1968]

Effect of amendment. — The amendment, approved August 27, 1968 (5th Legislature's 2d FCCS SCS CSHJR 74), inserted "and the Commission on Judicial Qualifications" in the first sentence.

"Term".—With the exception of this article, wherever "term" or "service at the pleasure of" appears in the constitutional text originally adopted, the reference is to a period of service for a particular office, thus allowing the drafters to be precise in their terminology. The language of this section and § 4 of this article, on the other hand, applies to any judge of any court the legislature might create, and "term" in that context may intend only the more general, though equally valid connotation of any limitation on a period of service. Buckalew v. Holloway, Sup. Ct. Op. No. 1988 (File No. 4058), 604 P.2d 240 (1979).

NOTES TO DECISIONS

"Term". "Term of Office" as used in this section means the time to which a justice or judge is entitled to hold office and does not relate to the 10-year or six-year intervals between retention elections for justices and judges. Hudson v. Johnstone, 660 P.2d 1180 (Alaska 1983).

CONSTITUTION OF ALASKA

Art. IV, § 14

Section 14. Restrictions. Supreme court justices and superior court judges while holding office may not practice law, hold office in a political party, or hold any other office or position of profit under the United States, the State, or its political subdivisions. Any supreme court justice or superior court judge filing for another elective public office forfeits his judicial position.

Meaning of phrase "position of profit". — See Begich v. Jefferson, Sup. Ct. Op. No. 481 (File No. 894), 441 P.2d 27 (1968).

And its intent. — The term "position of profit" was intended to prohibit all other salaried non-temporary employment under the United States or the State of Alaska. Begich v. Jefferson, Sup. Ct. Op. No. 481 (File No. 894), 441 P.2d 27 (1968).

The prohibition against dual office holding is literally enforced in Alaska. December 27, 1976, Op. Att'y Gen.

The purpose of the prohibition against dual office holding is to guard against conflicts of interest, self-aggrandizement, concentration of power, and dilution of separation of powers in regard to the exercise of the executive, judicial, and legislative functions of the state government. December 27, 1976, Op. Att'y Gen.

Judge may not sit as regent while holding office. — Since the Board of Regents of the University of Alaska is not an inter branch commission, a judge may not sit as a regent while holding office. December 27, 1976, Op. Att'y Gen. A judge does not sit on the Board of Regents in a representative capacity of the judicial branch. When he sits as a regent he is not exercising judicial power but rather certain executive powers of control vested in the regents over the state's sole institution of higher learning. This he may not do. December 27, 1976, Op. Att'y Gen. The University of Alaska is an instrumentality of the state, and membership on its Board of Regents is necessarily an office under the state. December 27, 1976, Op. Att'y Gen.

Sec. 22.30.010. Commission on Judicial Conduct. The Commission on Judicial Conduct shall consist of nine members as follows: three persons who are justices or judges of state courts, elected by the justices and judges of the state courts; three members who have practiced law in this state for 10 years, appointed by the governor from nominations made by the governing body of the organized bar and subject to confirmation by a majority of the members of the legislature in joint session; and three citizens who are not judges, retired judges, or members of the state bar, appointed by the governor and subject to confirmation by a majority of the members of the legislature in joint session. Commission membership terminates if a member ceases to hold the position that qualified that person for appointment. A person may not serve on the commission and on the judicial council simultaneously. A quorum of the commission must include at least one person who is a justice or judge, at least one person appointed by the governor who has practiced law in the state for 10 years, and at least one citizen member who is not a justice, judge, or member of the state bar. The commission shall elect one of its members to serve as chairman for a term prescribed by the commission. A vacancy shall be filled by the appointing power for the remainder of the term. (§ 1 ch 213 SLA 1968; am § 23 ch 71 SLA 1972; am § 1 ch 160 SLA 1984; am § 2 ch 135 SLA 1990)

Effect of amendments. — The 1990 amendment added the fourth sentence, relating to a quorum of the commission.

Sec. 22.30.011. Powers and duties of the commission. (a) The commission shall on its own motion or on receipt of a written complaint inquire into an allegation that a judge

- (1) has been convicted of a crime punishable as a felony under state or federal law or convicted of a crime that involves moral turpitude under state or federal law;
- (2) suffers from a disability that seriously interferes with the performance of judicial duties and that is or may become permanent;
- (3) within a period of not more than six years before the filing of the complaint or before the beginning of the commission's inquiry based on its own motion, committed an act or acts that constitute
  - (A) willful misconduct in office;
  - (B) willful and persistent failure to perform judicial duties;
  - (C) conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice;
  - (D) conduct that brings the judicial office into disrepute; or
  - (E) conduct in violation of the code of judicial conduct; or
- (4) is habitually intemperate.

(b) After preliminary informal consideration of an allegation, the commission may exonerate the judge, informally and privately admonish the judge, or recommend counseling. Upon a finding of probable cause, the commission shall hold a formal hearing on the allegation. A hearing under this subsection is public. Proceedings and records pertaining to proceedings that occur before the commission holds a public hearing on an allegation are confidential, subject to the provisions of AS 22.30.060(b).

(c) A judge appearing before the commission at the hearing is entitled to counsel, may present evidence, and may cross-examine witnesses.

(d) The commission shall, after a hearing held under (b) of this section,

(1) exonerate the judge of the charges; or

(2) refer the matter to the supreme court with a recommendation that the judge be reprimanded, suspended, removed, or retired from office or publicly or privately censured by the supreme court.

(e), (f) [Repealed, § 3 ch 135 SLA 1990.]

(g) If the commission exonerates a judge, a copy of the proceedings and report of the commission may be made public on the request of the judge.

(h) If a judge has been publicly reprimanded, suspended, or publicly censured under this section and the judge has filed a declaration of candidacy for retention in office, the commission shall report to the judicial council for inclusion in the statement filed by the judicial council under AS 15.58.050 each public reprimand, suspension, or public censure received by the judge

(1) since appointment; or

(2) if the judge has been retained by election, since the last retention election of the judge. (§ 1 ch 58 SLA 1981; am §§ 2—4 ch 160 SLA 1984; am § 13 ch 38 SLA 1987; am §§ 3—5, 11 ch 135 SLA 1990)

Effect of amendments. — The 1990 amendment, in subsection (a), substituted "filing of the complaint or before the beginning of the commission's inquiry based on its own motion" for "start of the current term" in paragraph (3); rewrote subsection (b); in subsection (d), substituted "shall" for "may" in the introductory language, deleted former paragraphs (2) and (3), renumbering former paragraph (4) as present paragraph (2) and making a related grammatical change, and inserted "reprimanded" in present paragraph (2); and repealed subsections (e) and (f).

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Former paragraph (d)(3) unconstitutional. — Alaska Const., Art. IV, § 10 only empowers the commission to recommend sanctions to the Alaska Supreme Court, not to impose them; and therefore former paragraph (d)(3) of this section, repealed in 1990, which empowered the commission to reprimand a judge publicly, was in conflict with the constitution. In re Inquiry Concerning a Judge, 762 P.2d 1292 (Alaska 1988).

Private reprimand. — Judge's self validation of reduced fare tickets through a defunct airline created an appearance of impropriety which warranted the sanction of a private reprimand. In re Inquiry Concerning a Judge, 788 P.2d 716 (Alaska 1990).

Sec. 22.30.015. Term of office. The term of office for a commission member is four years. (§ 1 ch 312 SLA 1968; am § 56 ch 59 SLA 1982)

Cross references. — For terms of members appointed or elected after July 1, 1984, see § 10, ch. 160, SLA 1984 in the Temporary and Special Acts.

Sec. 22.30.020. Employment and compensation generally. The commission may employ officers, assistants, and other employees that it considers necessary for the performance of the duties and exercise of the powers conferred upon the commission; it may arrange for and compensate medical and other experts and reporters, may arrange for the attendance of witnesses, including witnesses not subject to subpoena, and may pay from funds available to it all expenses reasonably necessary for effectuating the purposes of § 10, art. IV, Constitution of the State of Alaska. The attorney general shall, if requested by the commission, act as its counsel generally or in any particular investigation or proceeding. The commission may employ special counsel from time to time when it considers it necessary. (§ 1 ch 213 SLA 1968)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Attorney's fees not directly provided for. — The statutory scheme implementing the constitutional provision mandating a Commission on Judicial Qualifications does not directly provide for attorney's fees. In re Robson, Sup. Ct. Op. No. 825 (File No. 1552), 500 P.2d 657 (1972).

But arguably they might be treated as expense under this section. — Arguably attorney's fees might be treated as an expense "reasonably necessary for effectuating the purpose of the judicial qualifications section of the Alaska Constitution." In re Robson, Sup. Ct. Op. No. 825 (File No. 1552), 500 P.2d 657 (1972).

Prevailing judge may be allowed reasonable attorney's fees. — In order to effectuate a judge's right of counsel and not to be forced to appear as his or her own attorney, a judge prevailing in a proceeding before the Commission on Judicial Qualifications may, in the discretion of the commission, be allowed reasonable attorney's fees. In re Robson, Sup. Ct. Op. No. 825 (File No. 1552), 500 P.2d 657 (1972).

Sec. 22.30.030. Travel expenses and per diem. Each member of the commission shall be allowed travel expenses and per diem as provided by AS 39.20.180, but may not receive compensation for services. (§ 1 ch 213 SLA 1968)

Sec. 22.30.040. Preparation of budget. The commission shall be responsible for preparing and presenting to the legislature its proposed annual budgets. (§ 1 ch 213 SLA 1968; am § 5 ch 160 SLA 1984)

Effect of amendments. — The 1984 amendment rewrote this section, which formerly read "The Alaska court system shall be responsible for preparing and presenting to the legislature proposed annual budgets for the commission."

Sec. 22.30.050. Validity of acts of the commission. An act of the commission is not valid unless concurred in by a majority of the members serving on the commission at the time the act is taken. (§ 1 ch 213 SLA 1968; am § 6 ch 160 SLA 1984)

Effect of amendments. — The 1984 serving on the commission at the time the amendment substituted "the members act is taken" for "its members."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

The appropriate standard to be applied in regard to commission proceedings is that of clear and convincing evidence. In re Hanson, Sup. Ct. Op. No. 1117 (File No. 2311), 532 P.2d 303 (1975).

Sec. 22.30.060. Rules and confidentiality. (a) The commission shall adopt rules implementing this chapter and providing for confidentiality of proceedings.

(b) All proceedings, records, files, and reports of the commission are confidential and disclosure may not be made except

(1) upon waiver in writing by the judge at any stage of the proceedings;

(2) if the subject matter or the fact of the filing of charges has become public, in which case the commission may issue a statement in order to confirm the pendency of the investigation, to clarify the procedural aspects of the proceedings, to explain the right of the judge to a fair hearing, or to state that the judge denies the allegations; or

(3) upon filing of formal charges, in which case only the charges, the subsequent formal hearing, and the commission's ultimate decision and minority report, if any, are public; even after formal charges are filed, the deliberations of the commission concerning the case are confidential. (§ 1 ch 213 SLA 1968; am § 7 ch 160 SLA 1984; am § 6 ch 135 SLA 1990)

Effect of amendments. — The 1990 amendment rewrote paragraph (b)(3).

Sec. 22.30.066. Inquiry. (a) The commission may subpoena witnesses, administer oaths, take the testimony of any person under oath, and require the production for examination of documents or records relating to its inquiry under AS 22.30.011.

(b) In the course of an inquiry under AS 22.30.011 into judicial misconduct or the disability of a judge, the commission may request the judge to submit to a physical or mental examination. If the judge refuses to submit to the examination, the commission shall determine the issue for which the examination was required adversely to the judge. (§ 2 ch 58 SLA 1981; am § 8 ch 160 SLA 1984)

Effect of amendment. — The 1984 amendment added subsection (b).

Collateral references. — Confidentiality of proceedings or reports of judicial board or commission. 5 ALR 4th 730.

Sec. 22.30.068. Minority reports. A member of the commission who believes that the commission failed to impose an appropriate disciplinary measure after a hearing under AS 22.30.011(b) may submit a report recommending a different disciplinary measure. The report shall accompany the majority report and may be submitted by the member to the chief justice of the supreme court, the attorney general, and the chair of the senate and house judiciary committees. (§ 7 ch 135 SLA 1990)

Effective dates.—Section 7, ch. 135, SLA 1990, which enacted this section, took effect on September 12, 1990.

Sec. 22.30.070. Disqualification, suspension, removal, retirement and censure of judges. (a) A judge is disqualified from acting as a judge, without loss of salary, while there is pending (1) an indictment or an information charging the judge in the United States with a crime punishable as a felony under Alaska or federal law, or (2) a recommendation to the supreme court by the commission for the removal or retirement of the judge.

(b) On recommendation of the commission, the supreme court may reprimand, publicly or privately censure, or suspend a judge from office without salary when in the United States the judge pleads guilty or no contest or is found guilty of a crime punishable as a felony under state or federal law or of a crime that involves moral turpitude under state or federal law. If the conviction is reversed, suspension terminates, and the judge shall be paid the judge's salary for the period of suspension. If the judge is suspended and the conviction becomes final, the supreme court shall remove the judge from office.

(c) On recommendation of the commission, the supreme court may (1) retire a judge for disability that seriously interferes with the performance of duties and that is or may become permanent, and (2) reprimand, publicly or privately censure, or remove a judge for action occurring not more than six years before the commencement of the judge's current term which constitutes willful misconduct in the office, willful and persistent failure to perform duties, habitual intemperance, conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice, or conduct that brings the judicial office into disrepute. The effective date of retirement under (1) of this subsection is the first day of the month coinciding with or after the date that the supreme court files written notice with the commissioner of administration that the judge was retired for disability. A duplicate copy of the notice shall be filed with the judicial council.

(d) A judge retired by the supreme court shall be considered to have retired voluntarily. A judge removed by the supreme court is ineligible for judicial office for a period of three years.

(e) A supreme court justice who has participated in proceedings involving a judge or justice of any court may not participate in an appeal involving that judge or justice in that particular matter. (§ 1 ch 213 SLA 1968; am §§ 3, 4 ch 58 SLA 1981; am § 14 ch 38 SLA 1987; am §§ 8, 9 ch 135 SLA 1990)

Effect of amendments. — The 1990 amendment deleted "or after an appeal under AS 22.30.011(e)" after "recommendation of the commission" and inserted "reprimand" before "publicly" and made punctuation changes in the first sentences of subsections (b) and (c).

Sec. 22.30.080. Definitions. In this chapter

(1) "commission" means the Commission on Judicial Conduct provided for in § 10, art. IV, Constitution of the State of Alaska and this chapter;

(2) "judge" means a justice of the supreme court, a judge of the court of appeals, a judge of the superior court, or a judge of the district court who is the subject of an investigation or proceeding under § 10, art. IV, Constitution of the State of Alaska and this chapter, including a justice or judge who is serving in a full-time, part-time, permanent, or temporary position. (§ 1 ch 213 SLA 1968; am § 19 ch 12 SLA 1980; am § 9 ch 160 SLA 1984; am § 10 ch 135 SLA 1990)

Effect of amendments. — The 1990 amendment added the phrase beginning "including a justice" to the end of paragraph (2).
