Yellow Hill Lake Trail

Yellow Hill Lake that the path will circle

Project location in Alaska

The Metlakatla Indian Community is applying to the Alaska Department of Transportation & Public Facilities through the Recreational Trails Program, for funds to start a trail around the Yellow Hill Lake at Metlakatla, Alaska (see map).

This project will include a board walk that will circle Yellow Hill Lake and a walking path along the Airport Road side of the lake to make it safer for pedestrians and drivers alike.
