8/10/2026	Does the addition of the word employer make it unclear that interest cards are also confidential from the intervenor and anyone else?	8 AAC 97.060	Phone call	Considered, amended, and answered.	Probably. The language is modified this way instead: The employee petition or interest cards in support of a showing of interest are confidential records that may only be disclosed to the agency and are not part of the public record.
8/17/2026	Can I get more background on the proposed changes at 8 AAC 97.305, 8 AAC 97.310, and 8 AAC 97.320 relating to the right of non-association that are proposed to be repealed?	8 AAC 97.305, 8 AAC 97.310, and 8 AAC 97.320	Email	Considered and answered.	These sections address service fee objectors, religious objectors, and the escrow account associated with these objectors. As a result of the Supreme Court's decision in Janus v. AFSCME, employees may not be compelled to join a union. And, religious objectors and service fee objectors may now decline union membership altogether. Consequently, these sections are now moot.
