Review the draft

COPPER VALLEY LONG-RANGE TRANSPORTATION PLAN

Comment period open through

November 6, 2026

The Copper River Valley Regional Planning Organization (CRV-RPO) invites the public to review and comment on its draft Long-Range Transportation Plan (LRTP), which will help prioritize transportation investments and improvements across the region over the next 20 years.

A 30-day public comment period is open through November 6, 2026, providing community members an opportunity to review the draft plan, share feedback, and help ensure the plan reflects the community's transportation needs and priorities.
