STATE OF ALASKA RFP 2014-0800-8159 – Film Representation for Alaska
AMENDMENT NUMBER 5

The following questions have been asked and answered:

- Q. Do you want a resume?
- A. No.
- Q. Does this position currently exist? Or is it a new position?
- A. An RFP is not a position. The Department of Commerce has not solicited for these services in the past.
- Q. To whom does this contractor report?
- A. The successful contractor will work closely with the State's Project Director.
- Q. The RFP tells you that I'm interested in the job? And then you decide if you want to offer the job to any of those who responded? Is that correct? Sorry. I'm not well versed in government lingo.
- A. You must submit a proposal that addresses Section 2.08 and all of Section Six. Proposals are then evaluated based on the criteria in Section Seven. The RFP process will result in a contract. There will be no employer/employee relationship.
