STATE OF ALASKA RFP 2014-0800-8159 – Film Representation for Alaska
AMENDMENT NUMBER 14

The following question has been asked and answered:

Q. Under Amendment Number 9 ... it states:

"If you have no employees and therefore have no worker's compensation insurance; please state that in your proposal. If awarded a contract; you must provide a copy of your insurance showing that you have all the required coverage."

Question: Where in the proposal should we include the insurance requirement statement?
We have no employees and therefore have no worker's compensation insurance. Should we include this statement in the business license section or ???

A. It should be included in the introduction.
