

DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY

I delegate to Lieutenant Governor Byron I. Mallott my authority to decide on behalf of the State of Alaska whether to consent to my participation in any matter in which I personally and substantially participated while in the private practice of law, including court proceedings concerning the Point Thomson settlement. I also delegate to Lieutenant Governor Mallott my authority to decide on behalf of the State of Alaska whether to consent to Attorney General Craig W. Richards' participation in any matter in which he personally and substantially participated while in the private practice of law.
