FINDING OF EMERGENCY

The Alcoholic Beverage Control Board finds that an emergency exists and that the attached regulations are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, safety, and general welfare. The facts constituting the emergency include the following:

Effective February 24, 2015 Alaska Statute (AS) 17.38 significantly expands the circumstances in which a citizen may lawfully possess, transport, and transfer marijuana. Alaska Statute 17.38.040 expressly makes it unlawful to “consume marijuana in public.” Alaska Statute 17.38.900 defines “consumption” as “the act of ingesting, inhaling, or otherwise introducing marijuana into the human body.” But AS 17.38 does not define “in public.”

Testimony before the legislature and local governing bodies has revealed widespread concern that persons charged with enforcement of Alaska’s existing drug laws as well as the new marijuana law will lack sufficient guidance as to the meaning of “in public” to effectively enforce the new law, and that confusion and disorder will result, putting the public at risk.

Emergency Regulations

Therefore, this emergency regulation is necessary, to give clear and consistent guidance to persons who may consume marijuana in various venues, as well as those charged with enforcing the new law, so that the public peace, health, safety, and general welfare may be protected.
