3 LANDLORD'S RESPONSIBILITIES:

- A Delivery and Condition of Premises: The Premises shall be delivered ready for occupancy by the time shown in the Invitation to Bid cover sheet. "Ready for Occupancy" means that all mechanical and electrical facilities, equipment and fixtures shall be in good operating condition, all required remodeling has been completed, a current certificate of occupancy has been obtained, and all other required work has been completed to the ACS's satisfaction on or before that date. The ACS reserves the right to determine, in its sole discretion, whether the Premises are ready for occupancy. The date by which the Premises must be "Ready for Occupancy" is typically 2 weeks prior to the lease commencement date. This allows time for moving of furniture and equipment, and time for the ACS to install, set up and program equipment and furniture.
- B Compliance with Building Code Requirements. Prior to occupancy of the premises by the ACS, the Landlord must provide to the ACS a certification from a local building official or other person responsible for ensuring compliance with building codes to the effect that the premises are, to the best knowledge of the person completing the certification in compliance with all building code requirements applicable to the premises. - C Construction Schedule: If the Landlord intends to construct a new building or renovate an existing building to incorporate the Premises, the Landlord shall be required to establish a construction/completion schedule which will include a critical path with milestone dates and a completion date on or before the date that the Premises are "Ready for Occupancy". It will be the Landlord's responsibility to provide the ACS with written status reports every 30 days updating the critical path milestone dates. Two months before expected occupancy the status reports frequency shall increase to be provided every 15 days. The purpose of this requirement is to monitor work in progress and to allow the ACS to better plan its anticipated relocation to the Premises.

Section A

- D Building Alterations Required by Law: The Premises must be safe for occupancy and must comply with all applicable local, state and federal laws. The Landlord agrees to pay the cost of any alteration or improvements needed for the Premises to comply with all mandatory requirements of present or future laws, ordinances, orders or regulations of any governmental authority, unless non-compliance is a result of the ACS's actions. Noncompliance with applicable laws shall be an occasion for Maintenance and Repair under Paragraph F, below.
- E Fire Prevention: The Landlord will maintain the Premises in keeping with Title 13 of the Alaska Administrative Code, Part 2 Fire Prevention. The ACS reserves the right at reasonable times to make inspections of the building and notify the Landlord of unsafe conditions. If any fire hazard is detected through inspection of the Property or the Premises, the Landlord shall promptly correct it in compliance with Paragraph F, below.
- F Accident Hazard: The Landlord will maintain the Premises free of health, structural, electrical, mechanical or fire hazards; in compliance with all applicable local, state and federal codes. If any accident hazard pertaining to the structure or building operating equipment is detected through inspections of the Property or the Premises, the Landlord shall promptly correct the hazard in compliance with Paragraph F, below.
- G Maintenance and Repair: The Landlord shall retain sole responsibility for the maintenance and repair of the Premises and Property, except for such maintenance and repair as may be required because of damage beyond ordinary wear and tear that results from the negligence or other fault of the ACS or its employees. This responsibility encompasses keeping the Premises and Property in a good state of general repair and tenantable condition. The term "repair" includes repairs of any type, including, but not limited to, exterior and interior, structural and nonstructural, routine or periodic. Landlord will notify the ACS if Landlord will be making any alterations or repairs, and will schedule work before 8:00 a.m. or after 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday, unless an emergency requires immediate repair. Any and all costs to coordinate and/or relocate ACS employees, their furniture or fixtures to enable Landlord to perform its responsibilities shall be at the Landlord's expense.
- 1) After reasonable notice to the Landlord in writing by the ACS that a repair, maintenance, or service obligation as specified herein has not been satisfactorily fulfilled, the ACS may correct the deficiencies and either bill the Landlord for the costs incurred or deduct the costs from the monthly rent. As used in this paragraph, "reasonable notice" means the notice that is reasonable under the circumstances: the method of notification and the amount of time considered reasonable will depend on the nature of the problem and the danger that it poses to human life and/or property. The ACS reserves the right to determine the method of notice and the time allowed for repairs depending on its determination of these factors.
 - 2) Bills for such work may be sent directly to the Landlord for payment. Should there be any delay in payment by the Landlord, the ACS shall pay the bill and deduct the costs from the next month(s) rent payment(s) as determined appropriate by the ACS.
- H Janitorial Requirements: Landlord, at Landlord's expense, shall furnish janitorial services, inclusive of all supplies and equipment necessary to perform the services specifically outlined herein.

If the Landlord does not correct the defect within twenty-four (24) hours after notification, the ACS may correct the defect and deduct the cost from the rent. When the ACS determines in its sole discretion that a defect in janitorial work could result in injury to persons, the ACS may immediately correct the defect using the most expedient method available and deduct the costs from the rent. The Landlord is responsible for all injury to persons or property, which may result from janitorial fault or negligence.
